REGISTRATION LETTER FOR FESTIVAL ATTENDANCE

This letter serves as your Reservation to attend the Feast Days and your pledge to the Church of Israel in acknowledgement of the Registration Requirements.

As a single Israelite, or a male Israelite and standing responsible for all members of my family, and intending to attend all or any part thereof of the Feast of _____, 19 _____, sponsored by the Church of Israel at Schell City, Missouri I do acknowledge and pledge my personal support of and committment to the following restrictions.

1) The sole purpose of this religious gathering of Christian Israelite People is to worship Jesus Christ at a commanded feast day, study the Bible and have fellowship with other people of like mind, faith and purpose.

2) I understand that there can be no firearms, no drugs, no alcohol and no smoking in public buildings or on the Church Grounds and that language and dress should reflect high Christian standards of moral behaviour. I understand that violations of these restrictions are to be reported to Church Leaders at once.

3) I understand that if I live in Church Owned Facilities during the Feast Days that I am mindful of the rights of others to reasonable sleeping hours and that the lights in Church Owned Facilities are to be out by 12:00 midnight.

4) I understand that it is necessary that I be personally known by the Church Leadership to qualify for attendance at the Feast Day or by some person that the Church Leadership has vested trust with. If there is any doubt about your meeting this requirement it is urgent that you call the Church Office, 417 432-3119, or write Church of Israel, P.O. Box 62-B3, Schell City, Missouri 64783.

5) I understand that if I have children that I am responsible for their supervision, behaviour, attendance at all Public Worship Services, and for any injuries or accidents they might sustain. I further understand that teen-agers are to attend all scheduled Worship Services and are to be in their beds by 12:00 midnight!

6) I understand that my pledge and committment to the above requirements is the basis upon which I will be accepted as a guest at any of the Holy Feast Days held on the campus grounds of the Church of Israel and in confirmation of my committment to the above requirements and conditions under which I attend the Holy Feast Days as a guest of the Church of Israel I affix my name.
