rather than causes for U.S. intervention. Proves that the present economic system generates imperialist war. Implicitly calls for fundamental economic, social and political change in order to avoid otherwise inevitable war. 106 pp., $2.25 038-0

Chile 1970 –1973: From Allende's Election to the Fascist Takeover Reprinted from Workers World
Covers the major developments in Chile's tumultuous period from 1970 to the brutal CIA-organized coup in 1973. These articles warned of the great danger facing the Chilean workers and peasants as U.S. imperialism mobilized the reactionary forces of the Chilean state against the organizations of the masses. Also includes statements from the Movement of the Revolutionary Left in Chile (MIR). 112 pp., $2.00

East Timor: The Hidden War
by Richard W. Franke Describes one of the greatest David-against-Goliath battles of all time taking place in the small and almost unknown nation of East Timor against the invasion of Indonesia. This pamphlet explains the war and the background to it and why it has gone almost totally unreported in the Western press. 78 pp., $1.50

The Ethiopian Revolution and the Struggle Against U.S. Imperialism
A Week-by-Week analysis from Workers World newspaper
Where is the Ethiopian Revolution going? How are the masses participating in the Revolution and who are the leaders? What strategies have imperialists and counter-revolutionaries pursued to crush and undermine the Revolution? How can an underdeveloped country just emerged from feudalism have a socialist perspective? This pamphlet deals with these questions and more as it chronicles the period of August 1977 to January 1978. Contains, as an appendix, the Program of the National Democratic Revolution of Ethiopia. 86 pp., $2.00 027-5

Expanding Empire
by Vince Copeland
What exactly are the forces in the U.S. which generate coups, assassinations, and bloodbaths in the far corners of the earth? This pamphlet shows how big business cannot be reformed because it is bound by its own inexorable law—expand or die. 68 pp., $1.50

Eyewitness Ethiopia: The Continuing Revolution
by Deirdre Griswold
Meet members of the peasants' and urban dwellers' associations (kebeles) who are bringing the Revolution into every corner of Ethiopia. Visit the war front in the Ogaden where refugees and military commanders explain the international significance of the Somali invasion. Hear Chairman Mengistu describe the achievements and tasks of the Revolution. The author spent three weeks in Ethiopia in February 1978. The pamphlet is well illustrated. Also contains a chronology of the revolution. 49 pp., $1.50 028-3

Indonesia: The Second Greatest Crime of the Century
by Deirdre Griswold
Over a million victims were killed over a period of a few months in 1965 following the toppling of a left, nationalist government. How and why did it happen? Why were the U.S. government and the press silent about it? Who benefited from it? Why was this event called "the second greatest crime of the century"? A well-documented exposé. 102 pp., $2.00 003-8

Soweto Remembered: Conversations with Freedom Fighters
by Paddy Colligan
It's been five years since the Soweto Uprising. What's been happening in southern Africa? This timely book lets those involved in the struggle there bring you up to date. Forty photos, three maps, and poems augment the lively and readable text, putting a human face on the struggle in South Africa and Namibia and presenting facts and analysis vital to understanding today's events. An introduction by Larry Holmes puts the latest developments into the context of U.S. policy toward Africa. 115 pp., $3.25, 050-X

CLASS AND NATIONAL OPPRESSION

Battle of the Boycott
by Kenny Lapides
Shows how the right to unionize was won by the Mexican-American Farah workers and how the bosses retaliated by attacking the right to boycott. The struggle put up by these workers and a nationwide boycott helped to protect this right. 22 pp., 75¢

Blast Furnace Brothers
by Vince Copeland
A first-hand account by a former steelworker of the struggle to fight racism and forge Black-white unity in Lackawanna, N.Y. This booklet relates how white workers in one steel plant were won over to unite with their Black brothers and sisters against the common enemy—the boss. 33 pp., $1.00

Oil Belongs to the People
by Vince Copeland
A tremendous empire has been built on oil by a few super-rich corporations. Their stranglehold over this vital resource has led to an artificial fuel crisis and soaring prices. This popular pamphlet explains why oil, like air and water, should belong to everyone and what we can do to win control over it. 20 pp., 25¢ 034-8

Southern Populism and Black Labor
by Vince Copeland
Deals with the vast difference between the modern brand of pseudo-populism and the Populists of the 1890s who made the last important political struggle of the radical middle class (in particular the small farmers of the South and West). Also explains the strengths and weaknesses of these Populists in their attitude toward the struggle of Black workers as opposed to Black farmers. 62 pp., $1.50

Till Every Battle's Won: The Brookside Strike of Harlan County
by John Lewis
An inspiring story of how the Brookside miners in Harlan County, Kentucky, brought the multi-million-dollar Duke Power Company to its knees and won the right to a union. 35 pp., $1.00

A Voice From Harper's Ferry
by Osborne P. Anderson
Now, for the first time since the 19th century, a reprint of a primary source describing John Brown's raid on Harper's Ferry in 1859. Written by the only Black survivor of the great attempt at a mass slave rebellion. Contains a contemporary introduction by Vince Copeland. 102 pp., $2.00

Weber is Wrong, the United Steelworkers Are Right: The Case for Affirmative Action
by Larry Holmes
Affirmative action is needed both to correct age-old injustices due to racism and to strengthen the entire labor movement. This pamphlet shows how the Weber case was a challenge to the gains made by all workers. 33 pp., 25¢
