Peace Agitator: the story of A.J. Muste, by Nat Hentoff. An activist writer chronicles the 'grandfather' of the current U.S. peace movement—minister, labor activist, pacifist and resister, who left us with a legacy of nonviolent direct action. Revised in 1982, this 269-page edition contains many photographs and an introduction by Larry Gara, a leading historian of the nonviolence movement.
