forms of government. This is nowhere better illustrated than in the drug trade of the Golden Triangle.

In the late 60s/early 70s, CIA station chief in Laos and Viet Nam, Theodore Shackley, under the direction of Nelson Rockefeller's former professor, Henry Kissinger, systematically hollowed out the leadership infrastructure of whole countries in Southeast Asia's Golden Triangle, only to have this richest poppy real estate turned over to communists. Now the Burmese communists, whom our government supports, restrict all their territories to Westerners except for short visas to Rangoon. The same for Laos, Cambodia, and Viet Nam. The poppies are grown in the restricted communist nations only for export to the West. How convenient.

As clearly documented by Alfred McCoy, author of "The Politics of Heroin In Southeast Asia", our CIA organized the heroin trade in the Golden Triangle by militarily suppressing all traffickers in each area except its chosen agent and by providing product transport via Air America, headed at one time by Gen. Richard Secord. These U.S. government-conferred monopolies transcended the communist takeovers. In the heroin trade of the Golden Triangle we see communist and non-communist governments working together like a hand and a glove.

Because the CIA's involvement in the heroin trade transcends many presidencies it is necessary to look beyond presidents for the real power behind this heroin atrocity. There is a saying in Washington, "The presidents come and go but the Rockefellers are forever." The central role of Rockefeller operative Henry Kissinger in Southeast Asia makes it tempting to ask if perhaps David Rockefeller and the very power elite which he represents may — in final analysis — be at the center of this vile narcotics trade.

As for the so-called communist conspiracy, I have long maintained that the same individuals who pull the strings on the National Security Council also pull the strings on the Politburo. Reference page 163 of Antony Sutton's scholarly work, "Wall Street And The Bolshevik Revolution".

After meticulously documenting the long concealed fact that the richest men of the world financed the Bolshevik revolution, (Rockefeller, Morgan, du Pont, Mellon, etc.) Sutton reveals how this same group created United Americans, a virulent anti-Soviet organization which loudly stated that the Reds were going to come and cut our throats in the night. Sutton concludes that to create world communism and then create and control the propaganda instruments and paramilitary organizations to "fight" communism suggests utter moral depravity.

Would not control of both the eastern and western bloc nations give total world domination? Is the underlying motive of all these phoney communistic wars the maintenance of billionaire wealth and privilege?

In Sutton's work, "Wall Street And The Rise of Hitler", declassified State Department cable traffic clearly documents the simultaneous financial backing and military arming of both the leftist Bolsheviks and the rightist Nazis by this same group of the world's richest men and the clashing of these super states for profit and control. Foremost among this group were John D. Rockefeller, grandfather of David Rockefeller, and Prescott Bush, father of George Bush.

Perhaps this article begins to shed some light on the meaning of our government's habit of building up our nation's enemy states. The Carter government provided the fledgling Sandinista government with $118 million in aid, which was more than Somosa got in the preceding 10 years. CIA associate and business partner of Ted Shackley and Tom Clines, Edwin Wilson, shipped 42,000 pounds of C-4 plastic explosives and 200,000 miniature detonators to Libya and trained Khadafi's terrorists. Wilson's CIA associate Frank Terpil provided similar services to Uganda's brutal Idi Amin and trained PLO terrorists. U.S. interests financed the Kama River truck plant (whose trucks supplied the Afghan invasion), arms to Iran — the examples are endless.

What hope is there? Maybe — just maybe — it's the work of James Bo Gritz. His activities are the stuff of which legends and hopeful futures are made. The Feds tried to silence him with a passport violation charge which effectively pinned him down inside this country for the last two years. After 6 government postponements, Gritz was finally acquitted in June of 1989. The U.S. attorney trying his case said afterward in a televised interview, "George Bush called me personally and told me to get Bo Gritz."

Free to travel at last, the Colonel wasted no time returning to Burma and effected "an ironclad agreement from General Khum Sa to eradicate the opium trade in the Triangle. "A VHS video of this is available from the Colonel for $24.95. His hard bound book, "A Nation Betrayed", is also available for 19.95. Make checks payable to Bo Gritz, c/o Box 472 HCR-31, Sandy Valley, NV. 89019.

After viewing and reading his work, get busy and contact your congressman and all the media. Urge them to investigate the Gritz story. Nobody has ever proven Gritz wrong, but they have gone into a frenzy with charges that Gritz himself is "unreliable," "not credible," "a grandstander." OK, so prove him wrong. Stop the name-calling. Show that his facts are incorrect or without foundation. We suggest it can't be done. And that's very embarrassing to the phony "War On Drugs" being espoused in D.C..

If the true story is ever told some mighty big heads will roll. And until these manipulators of the world drug trade and these phony communistic wars are removed from power, insanity will rule the world.

BIG-SHOTS EXPOSE THE "BIG PICTURE"

Drugs are a new "interjection" into an old plan. There was an American president by the name of Franklin D. Roosevelt who admitted very smugly, albeit very accurately: "If it happens in government it was planned to happen." This president knew of what he spoke. He knew because he was a member of the elitist internationalist group of that time that planned and carried out many anti-American programs. But unlike George Bush, who is an integral PARTNER of the treasonous World Planners, Roosevelt only "worked for" them. The goal of these Internationalists was and is to "level" our nation politically, economically, educationally, and ecclesiastically. The reason? So that we could be merged with other nations under their rule.

(Yes, a one world religion is also being formed by the U.N.- sponsored by the World Council of Churches. It's called Ecumenicalism. Watch for the single religious faith that does not fall for this World Order deception.)

Hear former U.S. Senator Barry Goldwater on this very subject:

The Trilateral Commission is international... (and)...is intended to be the vehicle for multinational consolidation of the commercial and banking interests by seizing control of the political government of the United States... The Trilateral Commission represents a skillful, coordinated effort to seize control and consolidate the four centers of power — political, monetary, intellectual, and ecclesiastical." — From Goldwater's book "WITH NO APOLOGIES". (Bush was a leader in this group and a member of the CFR for some years up until he was appointed by Rockefeller as Reagan's Vice President. He (Bush) then "resigned" from both the TC and CFR as "eye wash" for the America public.

Another nostalgic note: The President of the CFR, Sir Winston Lord, boasted in 1978 that "The Trilateral Commission doesn't secretly run the world. The Council on Foreign Relations does that."

In 1954 Roland Gaither, head of Ford Foundation made this statement to Norman Dodd, the Director of a congressional investigation:

"We operate here under directives which emulate from the White House. The substance of the directives under which we operate are that we shall use our grant making power to alter life in the United States so that we can comfortably be merged with the Soviet Union."

AND...ROCKEFELLER COMES OUT OF THE CLOSET

In June of last year one of the oldest global government groups, the Bilderbergers, had another meeting to further plan and evaluate the progress of their utopian New World Order. The meeting was held in Germany and one of the leaders of the group opened with a speech thanking the major U.S. media for not allowing the public to find out anything about their diabolical plans till it was "too late." The speaker was none other than the dishonorable, anti-American David Rockefeller. His speech began thusly: "We are grateful to The Washington Post, The New York Times, Time Magazine and other great publications whose directors have attended our meeting and respected their promises of discretion for al-
