ESSAYS ON LIBERTY

VOLUME II

This book of 442 pages contains 37 articles on liberty selected from FEE publications, primarily from those released since Volume I of ESSAYS ON LIBERTY appeared in 1952. As in the first volume, these new selections cover a variety of subjects—government, bargaining, military training, security, equality, discrimination, human rights, education, and other problems of current interest. Each article is related to a central theme of respect for the dignity of the individual.

The Foundation releases each of its studies promptly upon completion. Most of them are in leaflet or pamphlet form—thought starters, so to speak. This format is well adapted to wide distribution, but pamphlets and leaflets seldom find a permanent place in libraries, schools, homes, and other places of study. These well-indexed, sturdily bound, handsomely printed and designed volumes of essays are offered to meet this need. They should be of great value to teachers, students, ministers, business and professional men, farmers, machinists—in fact, all persons who are interested in understanding and preserving liberty.

Among the 27 authors of ESSAYS ON LIBERTY, Volume II, are:

ARTHUR BESTOR	CLARENCE MANION
RICHARD L. EVANS	BEN MOREELL
BEN FAIRLESS	W. C. MULLENDORE
HENRY HAZLITT	MARIO PEI
ED LIPSCOMB	SAM PETTENGILL

Among the titles are:

THE PERSONAL PRACTICE OF FREEDOM
WHERE KARL MARX WENT WRONG
TWO WAYS TO STOP STRIKES
TO COMMUNISM VIA MAJORITY VOTE
THE AMERICA WE LOST
LIFE ON THE RESERVATION
CAUSE OF CORRUPT GOVERNMENT
MY FREEDOM DEPENDS ON YOURS
