LIBERTY

want you to look at that baby -- that baby who has drawn milk from your breast. Was that the milk of freedom, or was it the bitter gall of slavery?

We live in a telling hour; our nation hangs in the balance. Liberty has been taken from our homes and ravished in the streets.

Can that Liberty rise again? I don't know. But if that one can't, the one that is in your heart can, for if you are a Christian, she must reside there. She wants you to be free INDEED. Liberty is calling to you today. Liberty is saying to you today, "Will there be a land for me?" Liberty is calling from the cities and she is saying, "Sons and Daughters, bind up my wounds!" Liberty is calling from the farms of America and saying, "Oh, Sons and Daughters, clothe my nakedness!" Liberty is calling from the mountains of America and saying, "Sons and Daughters, remove my reproach! Will there be a land for me?!"

I was born an American; I live an American; I shall die an American; and I intend to perform the duties incumbant upon me in that character to the end of my career. I mean to do this with absolute disregard of personal consequences. What are the personal consequences? What is the individual man, with all the good or evil that may betide him, in comparison with the good or evil which may befall a great country, and in the midst of great transacactions which concern that country's fate? Let the consequences be what they will, I am careless. No man can suffer too much, and no man can fall too soon, if he suffer or if he fall, in the defense of the liberties and constitution of his country.

Daniel Webster

A politician thinks of the next election; a statesman, of the next generation.

James Freeman Clarke

WHAT WILL YOU TELL YOUR CHILDREN?

IT IS HAPPENING HERE!

AND IT'S HAPPENING NOW!

"My dear son
I am so sorry you are going to have to live under total government control and tyranny.
It seemed to come so quickly.
I didn't think their lies could win.
I guess I was just too busy with other things.
Not enough of us spoke up for freedom when we had the chance.
I am so sorry!"

Sometimes we feel so inadequate and unworthy to carry the standard of our Lord, but know that we can do all things through Christ who strengthens us. He teaches us even in our failures, and any success that we might enjoy is only by His mercy and grace in our lives. May God bountifully bestow upon you the treasures of His Kingdom as you stand with us...
