Summer, Fall, Winter 1989–90 $9.00

World Order Changes Hands (lead article). This seminal article explains the change in primary hypothesis mentioned above. Key to the new-found dynamism for the Vatican-linked forces was the assassination (suicide?) of the Queen of England's mentor, Lord Louis Montbatten, the related Philby, Burgess, Maclean, Apostle, Rothschild, Blunt spy scandals which resulted in the rise of the Vatican leaning Reagan and Thatcher regimes, and the death (assassination?) of Pope John Paul I. Reviews of books crucial to the new theory: Buckley's Saving The Queen, Wright's Spycatcher, and, most importantly, Leigh's Wilson Plot: How the Spycatchers and Their American Allies Tried to Overthrow the British Government. Queen under "house arrest?" Re-run of Pope Pius' 50's anti-communist crusade with sophistication this time. UFO craze on the upswing even in Russia. Manipulation for a Catholic (universal) "One World" order to battle aliens? Real purpose of Star Wars?

Spring 1988 $6.00

A reprint (16 pages) and review of Solange Hertz' The Triumph of the Green Dragon: the role of the Jesuit Carrolls in the founding of America, Georgetown University, and the "heretical" "American Catholic Church" (instead of a "devout" Catholic Church in America). The Carrolls "Jesuitical/equivocal" collaboration with the Masons — covert geopolitical move to weaken Britain? Backfired? Appealing directly to "the people" for the Church over the heads of the "rulers of this world" — the traditional specialty of the Jesuits. Is Liberation Theology a radical departure from the role of the Jesuits or the same policy in new clothes? Gnosticism, the New Age, and the Conspiracy: Jay Kinney's Gnosis and Bob Banner's Critique. Review of Charles Higham's Trading with the
