Kingdom work must be Sovereignly initiated...

How awful---When men 'run' without being sent!

How dreadful---When men disqualify themselves!

Many denominational workers have staked their hopes for religious advancement on the painful ascent of cultural stairs, all carpeted with sheepskins...

Sadly they found the Collegiate gate at the top...Was not at all the chief entrance into fame, fortune, applause.

There is no vital power---but resurrection life-power.

We cannot move a dying cosmos by political speculation, by human eloquence, by bizarre argument...

No: Our message must be kindled, inspired, accompanied by the anointing of the Holy Spirit.

If we would speak of Covenants, Kingdom, dynamic Christianity. If we would speak of Jesus to others, we must have been with Him ourselves.

If we would speak to our kinsmen in the tone of power, reality...with the vividness and holy fire of one totally in earnest. We must be much with Christ in secret; alone with God.

A true servant-worker cannot be a fervent King's messenger, while running his own errands...Or, spending time chasing wind and rabbit tracks!

Now hear this! "I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied. But if they had stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words..."

Then---Things would be different! Jeremiah 23:21-22

What is the chaff in the place of wheat?

Before a man can pray, 'Thy kingdom come,' he must be willing to pray... 'My kingdom go.'

If there is anything worse than social climbing in the world it is that ecclesiastical climbing in the church.

Our God prepares His own earthen vessels. And, the people who are strong and do spiritual exploits are those who---DO KNOW THEIR GOD!

Peter and John never trod the Halls of Ivy...

Spurgeon; the silver-tongued, successor of the Puritans was God-taught. Non-collegiate.

Life's most superlative endowment as servant-people, is an adequate experience with the Living Christ!

You are only as spiritual and effective as you are scriptural.
