Hitler's Secret Backers by Sidney Warburg, 1933 Paperback, 82 pages, Order #0019 $10.00

Strange document claiming Rockefeller and Morgan were responsible for putting Hitler in power, allegedly written by a scion of an International Banking Family. However, no "Sidney" Warburg existed. Most suspect James Warburg, the son of Paul Warburg, founder of the Federal Reserve System and Kuhn Loeb partner. We wonder about Sidney Weinburg of Goldman Sachs. He was the proper age to be a "messenger boy" at the time. Further, he did not come from a wealthy family, but rose to the top from the mail room!
