YOUTH BLAB 1962

A WORD FROM THE COMMITTEE

The Ferry Beach Committee of 1962
Has a fun-filled seven-day conference in store for you.
With songs at the table where Quillen Shinn sat
We'll eat and we'll eat till we bulge and get fat.
With group fun for all in Row-land's huge hall
We'll dance till the rafters are ready to fall.
Underwood stands though put to the test
With broken down doors and cracks in the rest;
Awaiting the ladies instead of the guys
In hopes that the noise will be kept down to sighs.
Let's hope the tents aren't as wet as before;
It's not very comfy with rain on the floor.

Lee is ready; Ross is there too,
And Ryder's just pulled the last staff member through.
Give Claire a hand for starting in time
To give this year's yearbook staff a good place in the banquet line.
DeWitt's strongly armed with a tablehead list
To keep tabs on those delegates who'd just as soon be missed.
If it's money that bothers, the right man to see
Is Sir James of the Exchequer, the treasury.
So you're looking for fun or relaxation
See Pete or Phyllis, heads of bed checks and recreation.

Bill Moors is our chief background man now
Since Uncle Al Fowlie has taken his vow.
(Congratulations to you and your bride, Al!)

The American Scene -- 1962, our theme,
Should evoke the presentation of a conference dream.
Gordon Hall stands for debate;
Charles McGlynn for inspiration;
Larry Jaffa for N.S.R.C.;
Dr. Bishop for education;
Dick Burns for off-beat religious lore;
The Sanfords for hospitality;
Janet Gould for college life at Swarthmore,
Dr. Jeff for psychoanality.

Bob Colley gives our banquet speech;
Andy Brown holds out for Reuther;
Scotty Neck's rushing 'twixt staff and crew;
The resonant voice opens up to John E tha
Bob Gussner stands firm in his political beliefs and studies;
Dave Blanchard will make drama stars out of all our friends and buddies
With the staff and committee introduced in this way
We hope that all the delegates are willing to stay!

* * * * * * * * * * *

LIMERICK CONTEST

! ! ! ! !

There will be a limerick contest for all, with prizes for the best original entries. Please submit all entries to Carolyn Harby by Thursday noon.