do so today or ever. They of God shall never be people-pleasers; rather their only wish is to please Him who is the undisputed monarch of the universe. Man-made traditions of the Jews are plainly shown in the Jewish Bible as being abominable to the Creator. Israel was commanded by God to follow His Word and pay strict attention to the prophecies of the coming deliverer so that they would be able to recognize Him upon His descent from Heaven. The prophet, Daniel, told of the Messiah's arrival as well as of His departure (death). (Dan. 9:24-26) The Messiah was to be born of a virgin. (Is. 7:14) The Messiah was to be begotten by God via the Holy Spirit. The Messiah was to be called Immanuel, meaning "God with us". "For unto us a child is born, unto us a Son is given: and the government shall be upon His shoulder: and His name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace" (Isa. 9:6). Isaiah spoke of the Messiah and stated that he would be a Jew, that the Messiah would be meek, lowly, acquainted with sorrow and grief, that the Jewish nation would esteem him not, and that the Messiah would be killed for the sins of the world. (Isa. 53:3-12) King David the Psalmist told in what manner the Messiah would die; that he would have nail-pierced hands and feet. (Psalms 22:16)Zechariah told of the amount for which the Messiah would be sold. (30 pieces of silver) (Zech. 11:12) The Old Testament, which the rabbis of today clearly do not preach, but conceal from the eyes of the world, paints a perfect visage of the Holy One, the Messiah, that our people the Jews were to expect. Over 330 clues eloquently paint the portrait of the one whom God spoke to when He said, "Let us make man in our image, in our image let us make man." (Gen. 1:26)

God told Abraham that his seed would bless every nation. This meant that when the Messiah came all the nations of the world would eventually find salvation from an eternal hell through their belief in the promised Holy One of Israel. But the rabbis, wishing for their sins not to be detected, deliberately and secretly obscured the scriptures, not only to their own Jewish people, but also to all the other nations of the world. Satan is satisfied.

Because of sin in Eden by the first two innocents, from the beginning God has called for the prophets proclaiming the coming of His Son, the Deliverer of Israel. The Creator and His Son moved to remedy the dilemma of certain death and hell to all inhabitants of earth. A law of sacrifice became necessary for atonement of sin pointing to the coming of the great and real sacrifice, the Son of God, the Messiah. To Abel, the blood sacrifice symbolic of that which was to come, was not grevious but joyous, for it offered God's only means of escape from hell (salvation). It was grevious to Cain, as it also is to the defiant today. (They wish not to accept the only means of redemption provided by God-His Son). Instead the people today wish to make themselves appear holy by ordinances not of God, but man-made Jewish fables and traditions.

When the true sacrifice, the Messiah, (Son of God) came and sacrificed himself as Isaiah said He would, and the Psalmist David said He would, and Zechariah said He would, and Moses said He would, and all the prophets said He would, then these ordinances of sacrifice were to end because the true sacrifice (the Holy One of Israel, the Messiah) had completed His work on the tree. (Heb. 9:26) And the way of salvation now, as it was then, is belief that God has sacrificed His only begotten Son to save us from our sins. It is the gift of God, and God wants us to know that. This means that the work of salvation was wrought by the hand of God. The Messiah said as he died on the tree, "It is finished." (John 19:30) (He was referring to the work of salvation, redemption, the means of escape from hell for mankind, provided alone by the Creator, He who the prophets of God foretold. Isn't that simple? God said the simplicity would be a stumblingblock to many, but that those who would believe would obtain everlasting life.

God delivered the nation of Israel from Egypt to be a nation of, by, and for God. He wanted the people of Israel to obey His every command so He could bless them and when the rest of the world asked, "Why are you so blessed?" the Jewish nation could reply, "Because we keep God's commandments and we have accepted His Messiah, His Deliverer, His Holy One." Thus, it would come into being that every nation would be blessed through the seed of Abraham as God told Abraham, and as Moses had written. However, today as in the past, the rabbis wish to obscure the Word of God not only from the Jewish people, but also from the nations of the world. What a tragedy!!

Rabbi Nuri calls me anti-semitic. Does he also call God, who delivered the Jews from Egypt, anti-semitic because God chastened the Jewish people for their rebellion and defiance? All God wanted was that the world should know Him and that He is good and that He has provided a way of escape. This escape can only be found through knowing His Word, through accepting His Son, the Holy One, the one who fulfilled every prophecy given about him in the Old Jewish Testament.

God commissioned all of His prophets, Moses, Ezekiel, and the others to be evangelists and to tell the people what He had said; for this, the Rabbi calls me an evildoer. When we read the Old Testament, Moses and all the prophets, we hear God saying, "Tell the people, thus saith the Lord." I prefer to be called an evildoer by rabbis (man) than to suffer the displeasure or wrath of God.

God has given many significant forewarnings of the second advent of His Son both in the Old and New Testament. Thus he has commissioned his servants to warn the people of the wrath that is to come for rejection. Why does the Rabbi obscure deliverance (the only deliverance God offers)? Why do the rabbis continue to obscure the prophecies of both the first and second comings of the Messiah? God, in the Old Testament, tells why. Because they are the sons of Belial, blind leaders of the blind. God said all that follow them shall fall into the pit. Hearken unto me, saith the Lord and "Cease ye from man in whose nose is one breath, for how lightly is he to be accounted of?" (Isa. 2:22) God's wrath is kindled against those who fear man. "Will ye fear a man that shall die?" (Isa. 51:12) "The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: But Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider." (Isa. 1:3)

Rabbi Nuri states that he would like to educate the Jewish people so that they will not be deceived. This would be refreshing. However, it cannot be done by educating them into meaningless Jewish tradition or old wives' tales, but only by educating them into the true Word of God, which includes the aforementioned prophecies. They must also preach faith and the belief in God's Word, His Son, and not sow doubt into their congregation's hearts; it is by faith in the Word of God that we become saved and by doubt are we damned. (Romans 14:23) When they disbelieved God and murmured in their hearts against His Word, the Jewish people had to die.

The Messiah and the people that follow the Messiah are the best friends that the Jews ever had. It was not Christians that killed Jews and Protestants in the Spanish Inquisition or in World War II; it was the Vatican (Catholics) who are not Christians. Christianity and Catholicism are worlds apart. Christianity is accepting the full Word of God which commands them, "thou shalt not kill." Catholicism says that believe in the Catholic Church or we'll burn you, kill you, torture you, imprison you. Quite a difference, isn't it? It is not Christianity that causes wars, but religions, such as Catholicism, that have killed Christians by the millions, as well as the Jews. Yes, the Vatican is also our public enemy #1.

Hitler, Mussolini, and Franco were all Catholics, financed by the Vatican to win the world for Romanism, Vaticanism, Catholicism, the mother of harlots, the mother of every abomination on earth. (Rev. 6, 13, 17, 18) And to me, and to my Jewish people, they are our worst enemy. Stay away from Catholicism. They are haters of God, haters of Christianity, and haters of the Jews. Stay away also from the One-World Church which is headed by the Vatican. God said this organization is headed by Belial, and any that join her and stay in her will go to hell. God instructs us to stay out of her. God said if we do stay out of her, we shall suffer persecution, but we shall have God, and we shall inherit the Kingdom of God.

God said He would turn His back on us Jews for 2,000 years because of our rejection of the Messiah, but after the 2,000 years He would call a remnant of us, Jews that would love His Word and be faithful to preach it as were His other faithful, that we would not be afraid to tell the truth to a world that is lost and on its way to hell. Yes, God said that some of us Jews would be preaching the Gospel (His Word) just before the Messiah comes the second time, and before He burns up the world with a fervent heat. This is a sign of the "end-times", so you see, I am a sign of the end-times. I am a Jew, and I am telling you the truth of God's own Holy Word. "Believe it and live, for why die ye?" (Ezek. 18:31-32 and Ezek. 33:11) "Come now and let us reason together, saith the Lord: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool." (Isa. 1:18).

Rabbi Nuri says that God's word and the people who preach it are using unfair tactics. I have been reading the Old and New Testament for nineteen years now and have never found God to be unfair; I have found Him very fair. Who else would send His only begotten Son to die for such as we? Who are we that God would send His Son to die for us? Doesn't this make God good? By obscuring this, doesn't this reveal the evil work of the Rabbi?

This Rabbi Nuri has the unmitigated gall and blind arrogance to say that the Jews came up with the concept of the Messiah. There is a lot of difference between man's concept and divine prophecies from Heaven. Divine words from God are far from human concepts. "My ways are higher than man's saith the Lord, for ye are on earth and I am in Heaven." (Isa. 55:8, 9) The Rabbi is totally ignorant of God and knows nothing. The Messiah is not a concept, but a reality. The only means of escape is provided by God; thus, it is an act of magnificent ignorance and an abomination for the Rabbi to say that the Jews, even though I am one, have an exclusive on God, when God plainly stated to Abraham that His Messiah was to bless all nations, the Jews to be the example to the rest. (Gen. 12:3) But God says that "ye are stiffnecked and stony hearted and do always err." (Deut. 9:6 and Ezek. 11:19) God became so angry with this type of attitude that He said He would turn to the Goyim, and he did. But now He is turning to a remnant of Jews and some rabbis in Israel have had their eyes opened by God and are now preaching the truth as I preach it to you now.

The Rabbi Nuri says that I will not go to an orthodox rabbi or Jew. I have challenged many orthodox rabbis and Jews, but as I said when I first came to Miami and as I still say, the orthodox rabbis and Jews are afraid of the truth, and are therefore, incapable of discussing the scriptures on an intelligent basis with me. If they believe their scriptures as they say they do, and if they keep them, and deny that the Messiah has come, why then do they not have blood sacrifices? Because their own scriptures, which I know very, very well, state that without the shedding of blood there is no remission for sin (Lev. 17:11 and Heb. 9:22) In this, do they greatly err. You are all in your sins because you do not have a blood sacrifice, refusing to accept the offering for sin that God has provided which your own scriptures tell of. The rabbi calls them great Jewish scholars, God calls them dead in their sins, that they are lost in sin, and cannot know anything for they are in darkness. Read the scriptures for yourself, they are easy to understand and there is no private interpretation of them. They mean exactly what they say. These blind leaders of the blind do everything they can to make God's word their concept, so they can do anything they please, living comfortably in sin. But it will not be a comfortable way to die. "The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord" (Rom. 6:23) who fulfilled all that was prophesied of him, including dying on a tree and shedding his blood (Isa. 53:8, Psalms 22:16-18, I Cor. 15:3, and I Pet. 2:24) God endorsed Jesus as being the Messiah by sending down His eternal Spirit from His chambers in Heaven. This powerful eternal Spirit of Life then entered the narrow tomb where the Messiah's body had lain cold and dead for three days. The ressurecting power of life found only in the Holy Spirit from God which is eternal moved quickly into the Messiah's still cold corpse. The pulse of life began, and while the earth reeled with a mighty earthquake, the Messiah strode triumphantly out from the grave that had imprisoned Him, the champion and Prince of Life. Yes, not only did he conquer death for us, but also hell and the grave. What a savior!! God raised the Messiah from the dead and Jesus the Messiah is alive right now, sitting on the right hand of power in Heaven, interceding for those that will draw nigh.

God makes a promise to the Jews. Ask God for yourself if what Bernie Lazar Hoffman is telling you is the truth; He will show you a sign.

When my wife was discussing the scriptures with Rabbi Saunderland in Los Angeles the Holy Ghost fell on her and she started speaking in Hebrew, a language that she cannot speak or understand. The rabbi became very frightened and told her to stop saying the things she was saying. When the Holy Ghost lifted, my wife asked the rabbi what she had said, and persisted until he did. But he made her promise that while he lived, she would tell no one. Rabbi Saunderland told my wife, "When I was in a concentration camp and they were marching me to another one, I had a vision. On a hill I saw Moses standing tall and straight with a staff in his hand and behind him I saw the Messiah dying on the cross for the sins of the world." This my wife told him in a language she did not speak or understand, and told him something he had told no one, what he had seen in the vision years before. My wife told him, "Rabbi, you know the truth, why don't you tell others?" He then stated, "Daughter, I am too old, I cannot fight them (the Jews)." My wife then told him, "You will get in trouble with God for obscuring the truth." He replied, "Daughter, I'm too old, I just cannot fight them." How tragic!! How cowardly!! How sinful!!

I am telling you these godly words because I do not want the blood of your souls on my soul when I stand before God Almighty and His Son. According to the words that God spoke to Ezekiel, the blood of your souls is now off my hands. (Ezek. 3:18-19 and Ezek. 33:8-9) Though I know I shall receive persecution for telling you the truth, I will not be as the frightened, sinful Rabbi. I would rather have man fight against me than the Almighty God. I know the truth and I will not hide it, no matter what happens to me. Repent or Perish.

Rabbi Nuri says he would like to know what kind of a Jew I think I am and what kind of mission God's people are on. I claim to be a Jew and I am. According to the Word of God, neither the Rabbi nor anyone is a Jew until they accept the Jewish Messiah and the Word from the God of the Jews which the Rabbi plainly hates. So I am a real Jew because I do accept the word from the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, just as Abraham did. Thus was he called by God
