ALL OUT JUNE 23!

Saturday, June 23 in Cincinnati will represent an important step forward in the fight for reproductive freedom. A march and rally sponsored by the Abortion Rights Committee (ARC) and the Reproductive Rights National Network will demonstrate against the "Right to Life" convention being held across the river at the Drawbridge Inn.

The march ill assemble at 2:00 p.m. at Washington Park, 12th and Race, in downtown Cincinnati, and march to the Serpentine Wall for a rally. Speakers will include Rhonda Copelon, lawyer for the Center for Constitutional Rights (NYC); Fran Kissling, co-author of "Rosie Jimanez: Investigation of a Wrongful Death"; Helen Nulholland, President of Religious Coalition for Abortion Rights/Ohio; Celia Petty, Abortion Rights Committee/Cincinnati, and others. Music by Meg Christian and Therese Edell.

The demonstration has been endorsed by 39 organizations from Cincinnati, around the state of Ohio and the country. Delegations from cities in the midwest and east will attend, and representatives from west coast organizations will be here too.
