By Sam Marcy

Czechoslovakia 1968: The Class Character of the Events
China: The Struggle Within
Busing and Self-determination
Capitalist Economic Stagnation
Portugal: Revolutionary Developments (1975)
The Class Character of the USSR
China: The Suppression of the Left
Articles from the Pages of Workers World (1976-1977)
Eurocommunism: New Form of Reformism
Articles from the Pages of Workers World (1977-1978)
Imperialism and the Crisis in the Socialist Camp
Articles from the Pages of Workers World (1978-1979)
Generals Over the White House: The Impact of the Military-Industrial Complex
Articles from the Pages of Workers World (1979-1980)
Reindustrialization: The Menace Behind the Promise
Chrysler and the UAW
Hidden Causes of the Polish Struggle
Articles from the Pages of Workers World (1980-1981)

For a complete listing of literature available from World View Publishers see the back of this pamphlet.

This is a Workers World Party Publication

World View Publishers
46 West 21 Street, New York, New York 10010
542 South Dearborn, Chicago, Illinois 60605
1257 Glenwood Ave., SE, Atlanta, Georgia 30316

Copyright 1981 © by World View Publishers

December 1981

ISBN 0-89567-048-8

All but one of the articles in this pamphlet originally appeared in Workers World newspaper between June 6, 1980 and May 15, 1981. "The Source of Political Reaction" appeared in a brochure, "Lessons of the Buffalo anti-Nazi struggle," issued by Workers World on January 26, 1981. Additional articles by Sam Marcy written in the above period have been reprinted in the following World View publications: Hidden Causes of the Polish Struggle; Reindustrialization: The Menace Behind the Promise; and Chrysler and the UAW.

Composed and printed entirely by voluntary labor.

Contents

SECTION I
JUNE 1980—AUGUST 1980

Auto industry request for government aid: A confession of general bankruptcy (June 3, 1980) 1
U.S. bankers lead world anti-labor drive (June 11, 1980) 4
Problem for municipal unions: Are police part of 'labor'? (July 1, 1980) 5
The Republican convention: Why the Reagan-Ford negotiations failed (July 22, 1980) 7
Truman and nuclear war: The mad haberdasher's carnival (August 13, 1980) 9

SECTION II
SEPTEMBER 1980—NOVEMBER 1980

The Iran-Iraq conflict, part 1: A working-class perspective (September 24, 1980) 13
The Iran-Iraq conflict, part 2: Only U.S. imperialism stands to gain (October 1, 1980) 16
The Iran-Iraq conflict, part 3: A bourgeois war for bourgeois aims (October 8, 1980) 18
Lynch law in Buffalo: Why 150 years of capitalist industrial development has produced social decay (October 21, 1980) 20
Reflections on the Carter-Reagan 'debate': Capitalist elections and socialist revolution (October 28, 1980) 23
From appeasement to defeat: Carter, the rightwing, and the election (November 5, 1980) 25
Political reaction in China: The Beijing trials (November 17, 1980) 28

SECTION III
DECEMBER 1980—FEBRUARY 1981

Reagan appoints a general to his cabinet: Can Haig be stopped? (December 17, 1980) 31
Senate hearings on Weinberger, Haig: How to confuse a great issue (January 7, 1981) 32
Reagan's inaugural address and wishful thinking by the liberal establishment (January 21, 1981) 34
Lessons in the struggle against fascism (January 25, 1981) 36
No, Reagan is not moving from right to center (January 28, 1981) 38
Perspective on the Reagan regime: Fascist violence and the form of the state (February 3, 1981) 41
Correct demand for the anti-imperialist movement: Foreign aid or reparations? (February 1, 1981) 43
For a united anti-war mobilization (February 25, 1981) 45

SECTION IV
MARCH 1981—MAY 1981

China isolated once again (March 3, 1981) 47
After the 'test' of El Salvador: Is Haig on the way out? (March 25, 1981) 49
The Reagan shooting: Civil war in the capitalist establishment (part 1) (April 1, 1981) 52
Civil war in the capitalist establishment (part 2) (April 6, 1981) 55
An anti-war note: Food, a double-edged weapon (April 12, 1981) 56
El Salvador: On a negotiated settlement and the right of self-determination (April 12, 1981) 58
Points for the anti-war movement: Class conflict and national antagonisms (April 28, 1981) 60
The French election and the Reagan program (May 13, 1981) 62