Dear Freind,

As you will note on page 1 of this issue, Comrade M. I. Laski, the General Secretary of the Communist Party U.S.A. (M.-L.), was attacked recently while serving a jail sentence and was brutally beaten. This attack on the leader of the Party of the proletariat is an attack on the Party itself. Such attack calls for the strongest condemnation. Statements of support for the Party as well as statements of condemnation on the attack are being solicited for publication in the PEOPLE'S VOICE. In light of the attack, we ask that you send letters of support for the Party to the editor of the PEOPLE'S VOICE at 9122 South Compton Ave., Los Angeles, Calif., 90002. We also ask for contributions to the Marxist-Leninist Defense Fund in order that the Party may better meet future attacks from the bourgeoisie. Send contributions also to 9122 South Compton Ave.

In case you have never before seen the PEOPLE'S VOICE we wish with this copy to introduce you to it. You will note that the PEOPLE'S VOICE is the political organ of the Communist Party U.S.A. (M.-L.). Subscription rates are $5.00 per year via surface mail or $10.00 per year air mail to anywhere in the world.

If you find yourself wishing to distribute the PEOPLE'S VOICE in working class districts where you live, we will be happy to furnish you with quantities of the PEOPLE'S VOICE for distribution.

We hope you find the PEOPLE'S VOICE interesting and informative. We welcome comments or criticisms you might have regarding the PEOPLE'S VOICE.

Looking forward to hearing from you soon, we remain,

Respectfully yours,
