Governors conference closed unexpectedly early yesterday afternoon due participants desire return home states. Governors' two accomplishments were (1) adoption plan give Cr 39 billion federal aid to states largely for purpose fostering agricultural development and (2) approval of plan submitted by Agricultural Minister for immediate establishment price supports, increased financing for agricultural production and such technical assistance measures as greater distribution of goods and increased mechanization of agriculture. Despite participants' apparent satisfaction these achievements it noteworthy <sup>some</sup> ~~both~~ need Congressional approval order become effective. Non-political keynote set by President Goulart (see reftel) apparently successfully maintained throughout conference sessions though it equally apparent governors did considerable politicking among their congressional delegations. Embassy soundings to date indicate balance this activity favorable Goulart's objectives since known that several attempted impress Deputies with possible serious developments should some sort compromise not be reached with President on plebiscite issue.
