

A G E N D A

CONGRESSIONAL STAFF WORKSHOP ON BRAZIL

February 27, 1984

9:00 am Coffee and Pastry

9:20 am Welcome
Prosser Gifford, Deputy Director, Wilson Center

9:30-10:30 am "The Brazilian Political Game"
Chair: Margaret Daly Hayes, Senate Foreign Relations Committee
Speaker: Thomas Skidmore, University of Wisconsin, Madison

10:30-10:45 am Coffee Break

10:45-11:45 am "The Brazilian Economy in Good Times and Bad"
Chair: Richard Clark, Office of Congressman Aspin
Speaker: Werner Baer, University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign

11:45-1:30 pm Lunch and Discussion - "Brazil's Foreign Policy"
Chair: Louis W. Goodman, Acting Secretary, Latin American Program
Speaker: Ambassador Renaldo Sardemberg, Itamaraty
Distinguished Guest: Ambassador Sergio Correa da Costa

1:45-3:00 pm "United States-Brazil Trade Issues"
Chair: Richard A. Nuccio, Program Associate, Latin American Program
Speakers: Marian Barell, Office of the U. S. Trade Representative
Colin Bradford, Yale University
Jose Artur Denot Madeiros, Embassy of Brazil

3:00-3:15 pm Coffee Break

3:15-4:30 pm "Brazil's Debt Crisis: The Domestic and International Dimensions"
Chair: Thomas C. Bruneau, McGill University
Speakers: David Roberts, Senior Economist, Federal Reserve Bank of New York
Thomas Trebat, Vice President, Banker's Trust

4:30-5:30 pm Round-table Discussion

5:30-6:00 pm Cocktails

6:00-8:00 pm Dinner and Discussion

"Brazil and Democracy"

Chair: James H. Billington, Director, Wilson Center

Speaker: Bolivar Lamounier, Director-President, IDESP