On Sunday, March 22, leftist agitators unsuccessfully attempted interrupt conference sponsored by Secondary Students Association in honor visiting UDN Deputies Pedro Aleixo and Bilac Pinto by demonstrations in front Economic Sciences Faculty. Two students wounded shots apparently fired by Communist agitator Vernier Macedo. State police arrived tardily and broke up disorder with teargas later charging that disorders caused by rightwing goons restricting entrance to meeting. Police story denied by observers.

On Monday scheduled meeting Womens Democratic Crusade to hear UDN Deputy Danilo Nunes surrounded by some three hundred heavily and ostentatiously armed state police who blocked cars and frisked those seeking attend; nevertheless some three to five thousand women turned up to cheer anti-Communist speech.
