1. A Mrs. Warner of the World Wide Lecture Bureau, New York City, telephoned ARA/CAR October 30 to inquire whether Dept. has any objection to lectures at one or more American universities by PRD Secretary General Francisco Pena Gomez. She said she had communication from Sacha Volman asking that Pena Gomez be given speaking engagements third week of January 1968 before Pena Gomez departs for an unspecified inter-American meeting at Bogota, Colombia.

We replied
2. /Dept. has no objection to US lectures by Pena Gomez. We also reported we have no information regarding a governmental inter-American meeting in Bogota January or February, though there may be a private meeting of some sort that is unknown to us. Mrs. Warner said she would inform Dept. of any bookings she obtained for Pena Gomez.
