

Wendy Warlick is the co-founder of "I Was There," an oral history project organized by the Vartan Gregorian Elementary School, which is dedicated to teaching children about the history of the Fox Point community. She was born on September 4, 1961 in Waterbury, CT, and has lived in Providence for approximately three and a half years. She is separated from her husband, Tim Warlick, and has two children, Leni and Darla. She received her bachelor's degree from the New School in New York, NY, and is currently employed as an Activities Therapist at Butler Hospital. She often frequents India Point Place Park with her children.
