

Raymond A Xavier was born in Fox Point in 1951 and lived at 63 Hope Street for most of his childhood, surrounded by his extended family. He attended Cleary School and St. Joseph's Church when he was a young. For high school, he attended LaSalle Academy, a private Catholic School in N. Providence.

He left Fox Point when he went to the University of Rhode Island for college. He has been a guidance counselor for the Department of Children and Families, the Narragansett school system, and now, the private, parochial Prout School.
