

20. "WHY DON'T YOU PROPOSE SOMETHING CONSTRUCTIVE?" by Frank Chodorov
There cannot be a "good" society until there are "good" men.
21. THE OTHER SIDE OF THE SUBSIDY
United States Supreme Court, 1942:
"It is hardly lack of due process for the government to regulate that which it subsidizes."
22. INSURING YOUR INSURANCE, by
Asa V. Call
What the government has done to the value of your insurance.
23. JUST YOU! by Ernest H. Sommerfeld
Only persons — not organizations — are moral or immoral.
24. THE PLANNED ECONOMY MEANS SLAVE LABOR, by R. Hopkin Morris, M.P.
"No country in the world, as far as I know, has yet succeeded in carrying through a planned economy without the direction of labor."
25. THE COMMUNIST IDEA (PART I)
Karl Marx on communism.
26. ATHLETES, TAXES, AND INFLATION, by
W. M. Curtiss
A comparison of the "take-home pay" of Ted Williams and Babe Ruth.
27. LIFE ON THE RESERVATION, by
R. J. Rushdoony
Government-guaranteed security for the Indians.
28. THE COMMUNIST IDEA (PART II)
Earl Browder on communism.

29. POLITICAL PIED PIPERS, by
Clyde W. Fox
A modern crusade to Utopia.
30. THE SUGAR CRISIS, by W. H. Ching
During World Wars I and II, did governmental controls increase or decrease the supply of sugar?
31. DOLLARS MAKE POOR EATING, by C. L. Dickinson
When the production of paper dollars exceeds the production of goods and services—as is now the case—various delusions make their appearance.
32. SOME WANDERING THOUGHTS, by John Unkel
One sure way to stop this trend toward complete subservience to the federal government would be to have the states collect all taxes and make the necessary grants to Washington, instead of the other way around.
33. THE VITAL MARGIN, by
Francis Adams Truslow
The margin between production and consumption — profit — is now too narrow for safety.
34. THE COMMUNIST IDEA (PART III),
by F. A. Harper
Government ownership in the United States.
35. PEACE OR POLITICS, by Frank Chodorov
The road to peace lies through the market place.