

Action on behalf of justice and participation in the transformation of the world fully appear to us as a constitutive dimension of the preaching of the Gospel, or, in other words, of the Church's mission for the redemption of the human race and its liberation from every oppressive situation.

Synod of Bishops

The Justice and Peace Commission Seeks:

- On an annual basis to identify and analyze a number of special issues of international justice and peace
- To encourage prayer and reflection on the Gospel dimensions of these issues
- To take prophetic positions consistent with Catholic social teachings which address the needs in our current and future society
- To propose ways and means to educate the community at large as to the necessity for world peace and international justice
- To implement plans enabling action on behalf of world peace and international justice
- To support and implement the recommendations of the United States Catholic Conference pertaining to justice and peace
- To work cooperatively with local and national organizations committed to the same end.

Please contact the Commission Office for further information or resources.
