

which to speak, but yours and mine." (32 pages)

*PRICE SUPPORTS by W. M. Curtiss

How governmental interference in the market place affects both producers and consumers. (19 pages)

PUBLIC HOUSING by Paul L. Poirot

Some unforeseen consequences of making anybody's housing problem everybody's responsibility. (36 pages)

SOCIAL SECURITY by Paul L. Poirot

Explains the "catch" to the promise of security: "A government which can take a man's property, including his wages and other current earnings, can control that man's life." (29 pages)

*SURVIVAL OF THE SPECIES by Ben Moreell

A four-star admiral declares: "I do not fear the Russian army nearly as much as I fear the concept of using our own laws to relieve individuals of the responsibility for their own decisions and welfare." (19 pages)

TO COMMUNISM: VIA MAJORITY VOTE by Admiral Ben Moreell

In 1848 in his Communist Manifesto, Karl Marx laid down the platform of communism. How much of it have the American voters demanded for themselves? (34 pages)

THE TREATMENT OF CAPITALISM BY HISTORIANS by T. S. Ashton

Historians generally agree that capitalism in the nineteenth century exploited and deprived the workers. Professor Ashton offers evidence to the contrary. (36 pages; single copy free)

VICTIMS OF SOCIAL LEVELING by Leonard E. Read

The effects of governmental aid on three persons: The one from whom the money is taken, the one to whom it is given, and the one in charge of the process. (19 pages)

WHAT DOES FREEDOM MEAN TO YOU? by Russell J. Clinchy

A definition and measure of freedom. (23 pages)

WHERE KARL MARX WENT WRONG by Samuel B. Pettengill

Did machines or government decrease hours of labor? What caused our increased standard of living—laws or capital? (18 pages)

Booklets

(various sizes, quantity prices on request)

ILLUSIONS OF POINT FOUR by Henry Hazlitt

"Once we accept the principle that we owe the rest of the world a living, our responsibilities become bottomless." (48 pages; 50¢)

LIBERTY AND TAXES by Bradford B. Smith

A critical examination of progressive taxation as it relates to the principles of a voluntary society. (19 pages; single copy free)

*NO VACANCIES by Bertrand de Jouvenel

An illustrated report of the effects of over 30 years of French rent control. (16 pages, charts, photographs; single copy free)

OUTLOOK FOR FREEDOM by Leonard E. Read

The story of a person who honestly examines his own soul for socialistic leanings. (39 pages; 50¢)