

member receiving the highest number of votes, provided it is more than one-half of the votes cast, shall be declared elected. If there is no member who win a majority of the votes cast, then the two members who have received the most votes shall be engaged in a run off vote, until one of them receives a majority.

Section 6. (a) The NOC shall meet in regular session at least once a month. The NOC can meet in special session upon motion made by a NOC member, without the need for a second, or upon recommendation by the National Organizer, such motion or recommendation to be promptly submitted to the entire NOC for action. However, the NOC shall have the power to skip meetings when in their judgment other Party interests dictate doing so.

(b) All meetings of the NOC shall be held in executive session and only members in good standing may attend.

Section 7. A majority shall constitute a quorum for regular and special session of the NOC.

Section 8. The NOC shall have the following duties:

(a) To carry out the resolutions of the National White Workers' Congress and those adopted by a general vote.

(b) To supervise the agitation throughout the country, and to organize new Organizing Committees.

(c) To render final decisions in all appeals made by members disciplined by an Organizing Committee or refer them to the next National White Workers' Congress.

(d) To establish proper relations and communication with other White Nationalist organizations in the U.S. and overseas.

(To be continued in Vol. 3 No. 6)

Dear Kinsman Wyatt:

We received your last issue of the DEMOCRATIC SOCIALIST the other day and found it of the same quality as the others. I see that it is now called the Third Position. If there are any issues that you have not sent us yet, could you do so?

Comrade Stewart:

The only back issue I have is the propaganda one. I don't keep my back issues, except on disk, because I live, basically, outdoors, and it is impossible to keep anything clean or dry in the winter.
