

ADC BOOKS

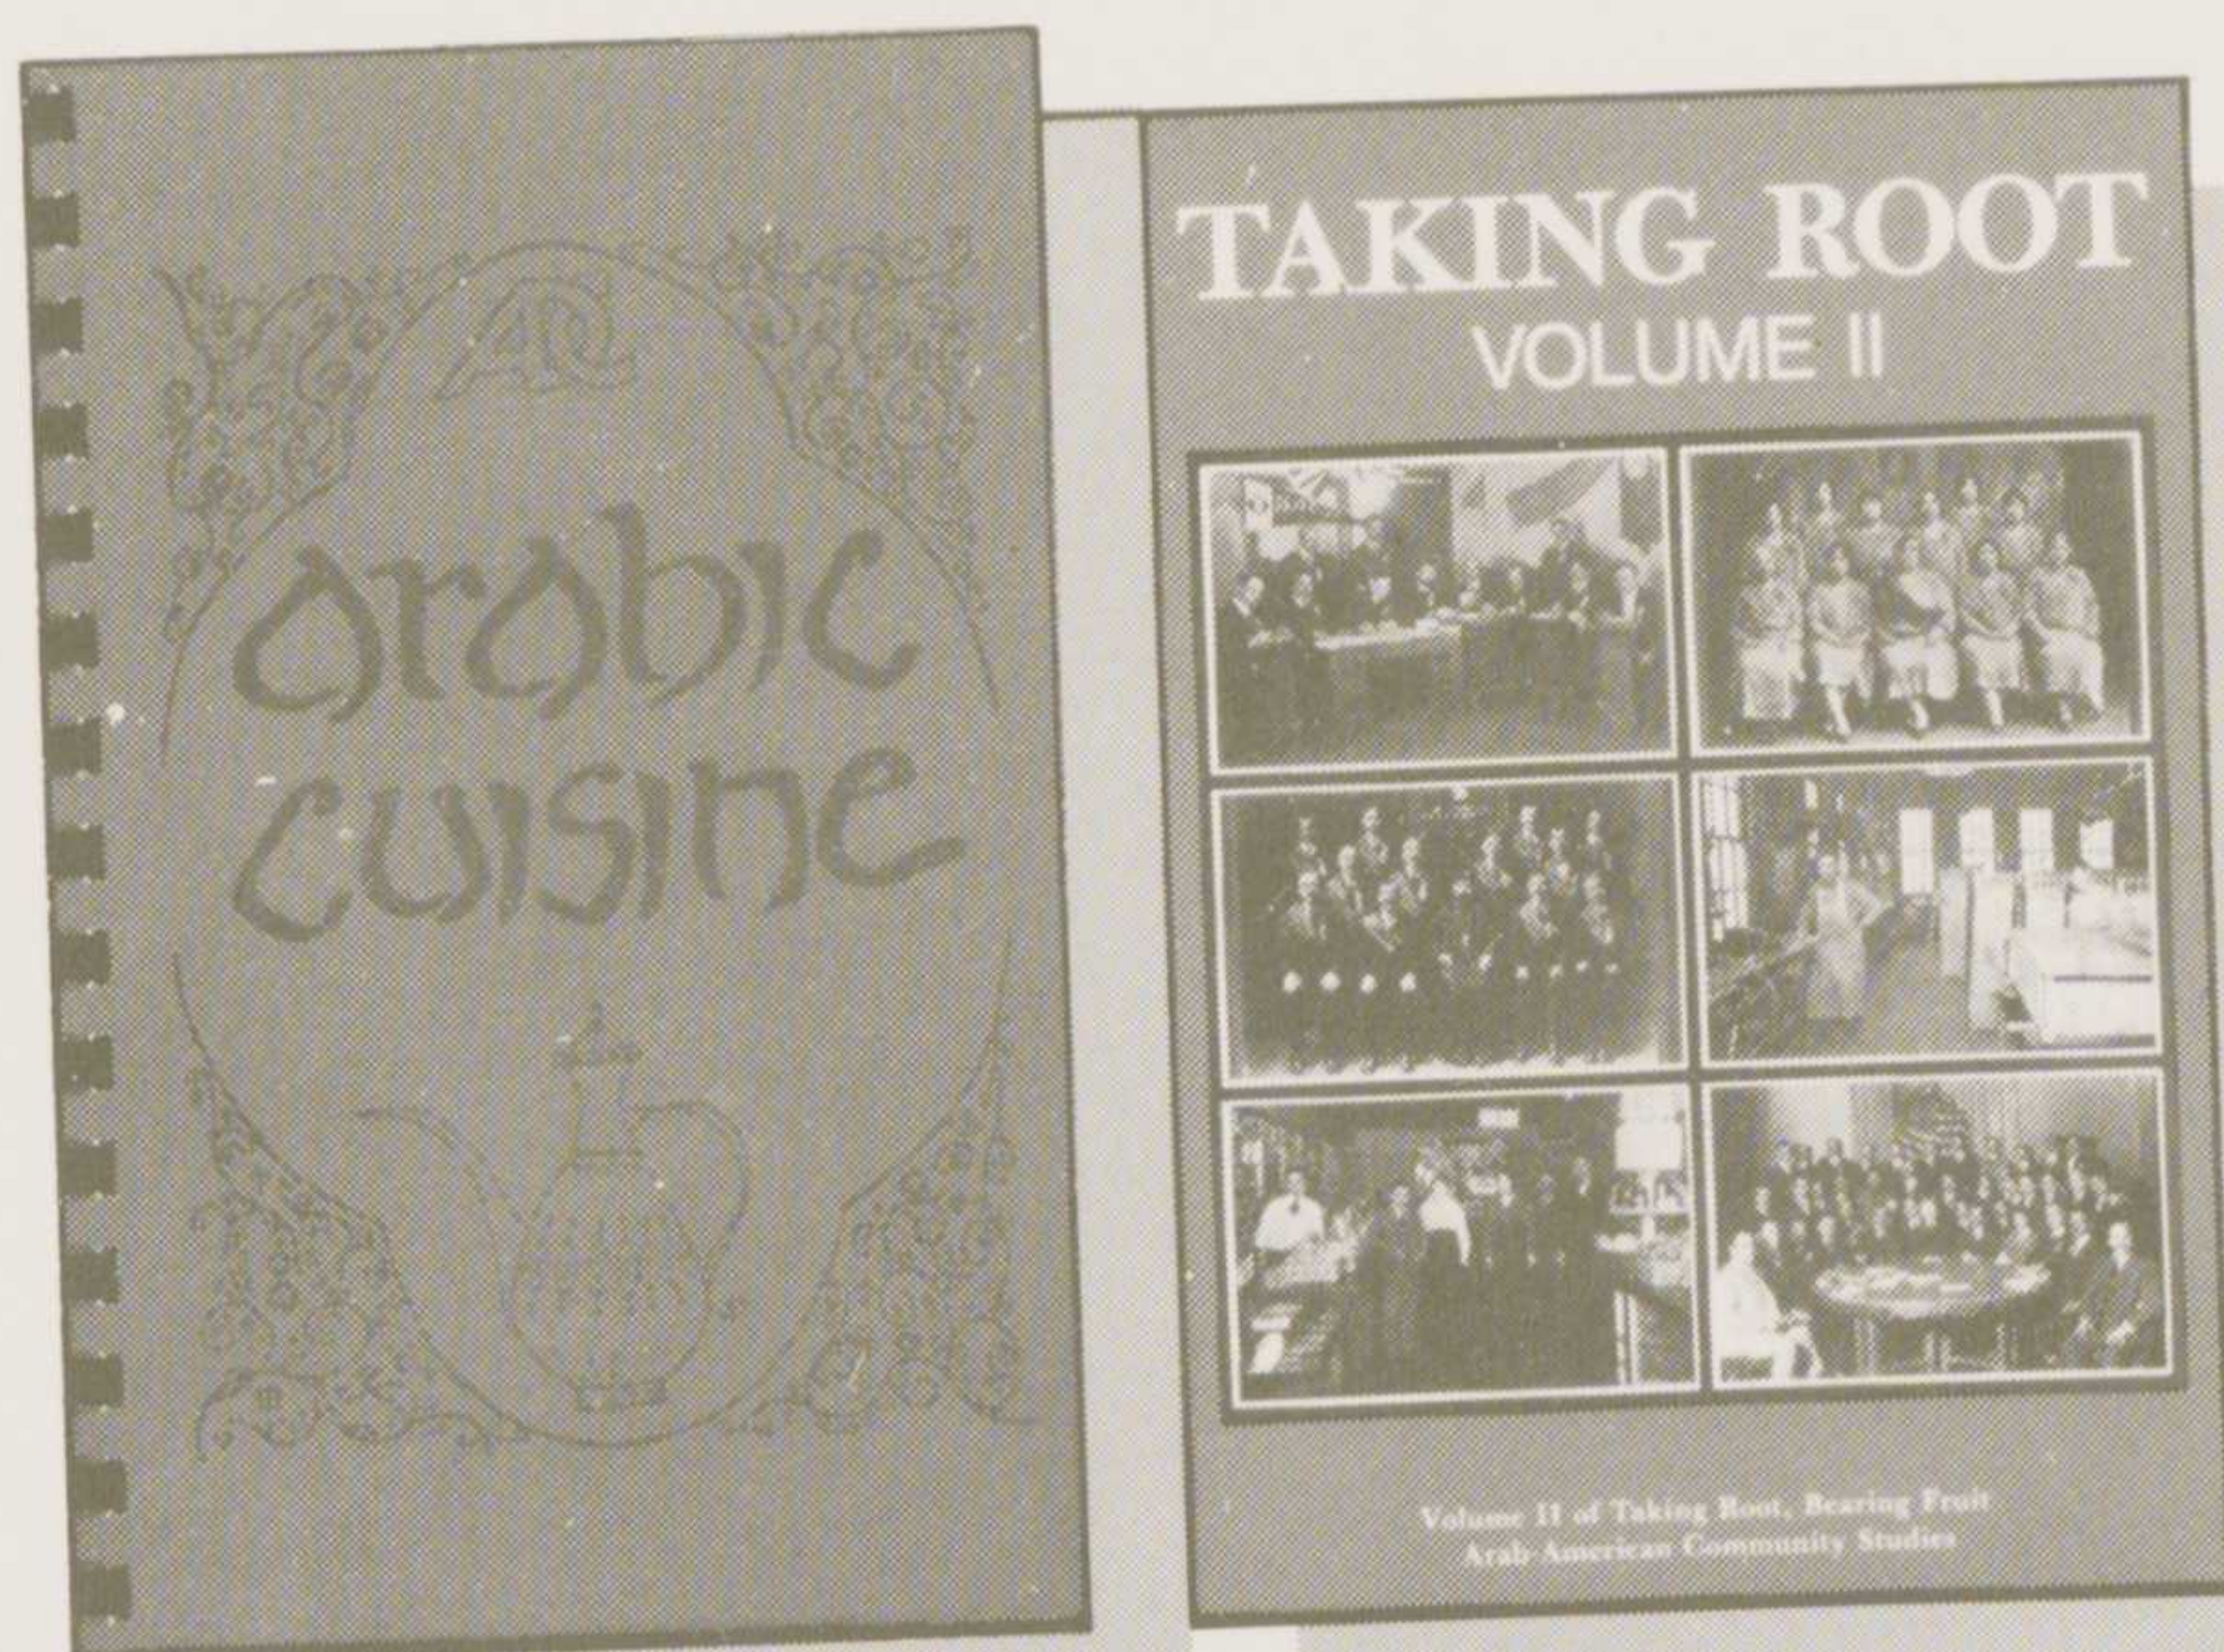

Taking Root, Volume II. Portrayals of Arab-American communities and their history: Ross, ND; Vicksburg, MS; New Castle, PA; Flint, MI; Providence, RI. Includes one young immigrant's voyage at the turn of the century. Illustrated with photos from private collections. 147 pages, paper. (1985)

Taking Root, Volume I. Portrayals of Arab-American communities in Allentown, PA; Birmingham, AL; Boston; Brooklyn, Detroit; Houston; Jacksonville, FL; Portland, OR; San Francisco; Yemeni farmworkers; Utica, NY; Worcester, MA. Illustrated. 141 pages, paper. (1984)

Report on Israeli Human Rights Practices in the Occupied Territories for 1985. Details human rights violations according to the same categories studies by the annual State Department Country Reports. Documents numerous violations omitted by the State Department. Debunks the myth of Israel's "benign occupation." Published jointly by ADC and the Palestine Human Rights Campaign. 50 pages, paper. (1986)

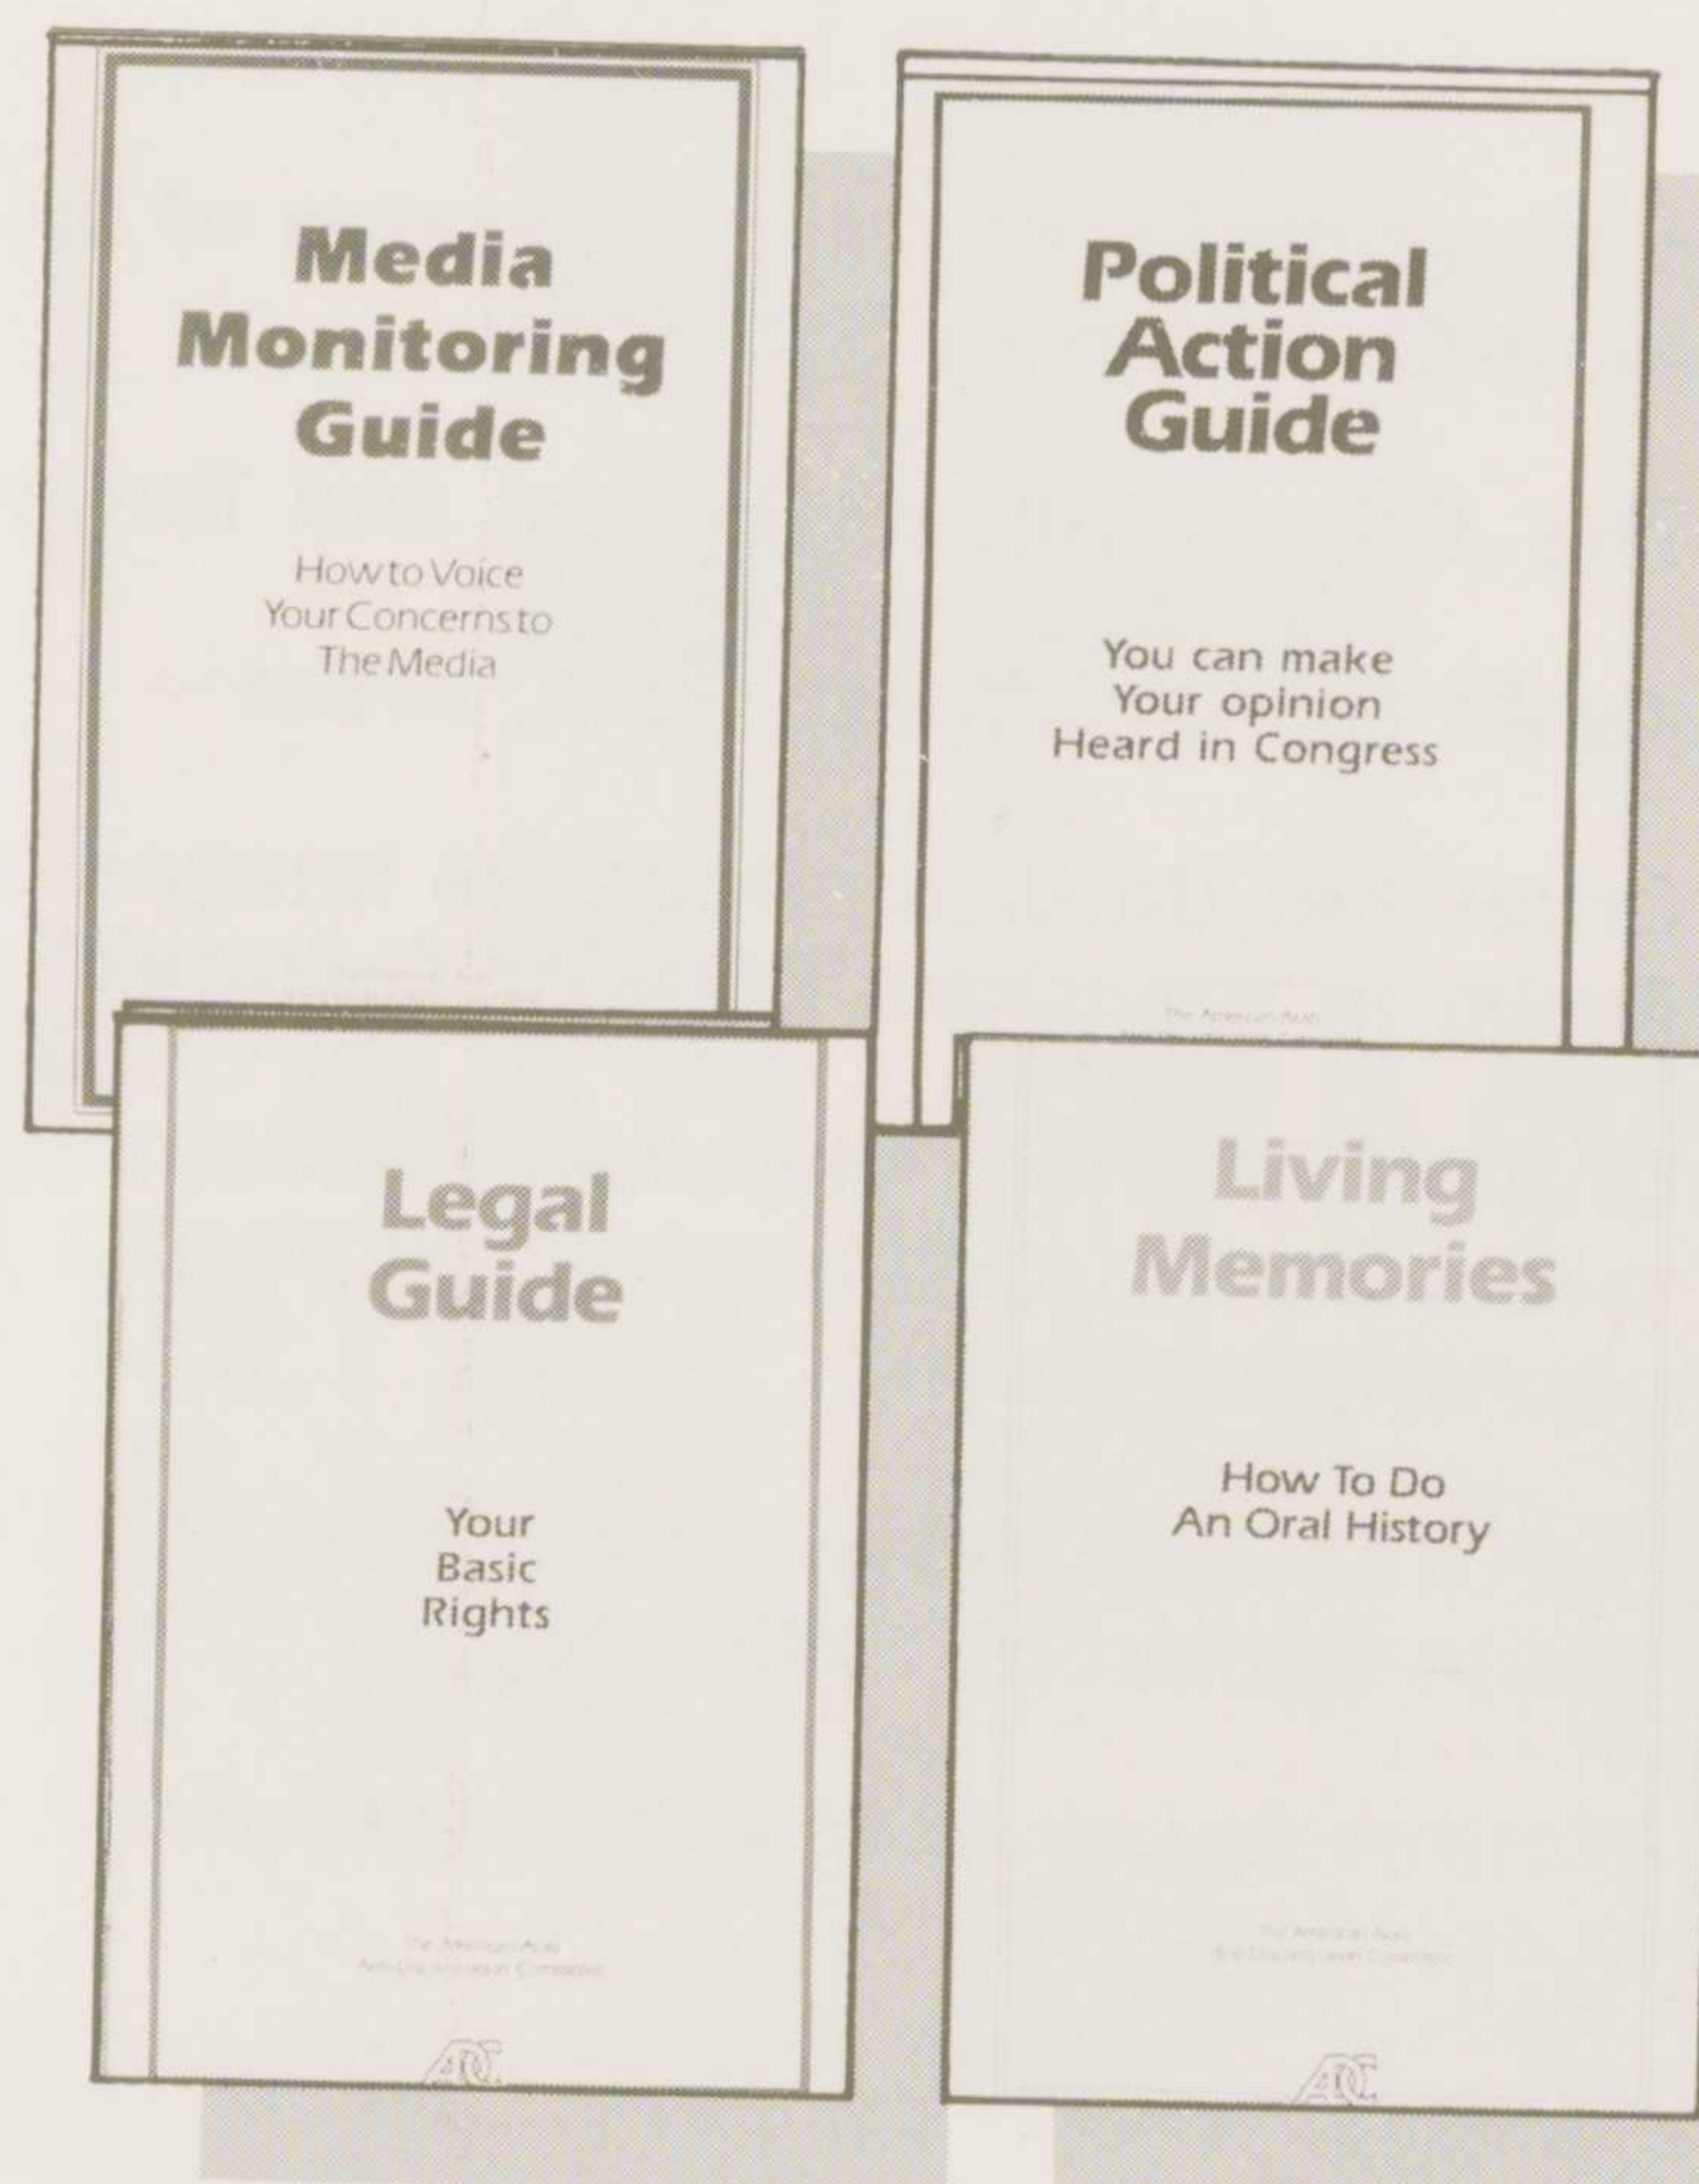

Still Available: Reports for 1982, 1984.

Arabic Cuisine. More than 130 recipes from Bahrain, Egypt, Iraq, Lebanon, Syria and Palestine. Compiled by Western Pennsylvania ADC members from family recipes. 99 pages, paper.

Wrapping the Grapeleaves: A Sheaf of Contemporary Arab-American Poets. Edited by Gregory Orfalea. Beautiful poems which convey the Arab-American immigration experience. 20 pages, paper. (1982)

ADC GUIDES

Media Monitoring Guide. How to access the media to help put a stop to negative stereotyping of Arabs in print and broadcast media.

Political Action Guide. How to articulate your views in letters, phone calls and meetings with your elected representatives.

Legal Guide. Know the legal rights of citizens, residents and visitors in the United States. (Also available in Arabic)

Living Memories. How to do an oral history of an Arab-American individual or family, to preserve a heritage which may otherwise be lost.