

Maluna ae o na lahui apau ke ola ke kanaka.

"Above all nations is humanity."

University of Hawaii Institute for Peace

goals:

To sponsor and support peace education and research projects at the University of Hawaii and within the community at large.

To provide a peace studies curriculum for both undergraduates and graduates, and thereby to promote broader thinking toward the development of a peaceful world.

To support research into nonviolent means of resolving conflict.

To promote interaction and outreach with the local, national, and international peace communities.

To cooperate with individuals and organizations in a continuing dialogue on the global quest for justice and peace.

programs:

Peace Certificate - for baccalaureate degree students

Masters in Peace Studies - two years of course and field work

Pacific Peace Seminar - summer institute

Center for Global Nonviolence - research center

Human Rights Charter for the Pacific - to develop model

Asia-Pacific Dialogue - conference on regional conflict

Resource Center - available to community colleges and community

Symposia and Lectures - this year's focus is conflict resolution

Community Council - coordinate peace activity in Hawaii

UH Institute for Peace Manoa Campus

2424 Malle Way, Porteus Hall 717

Honolulu, HI 96822

948-7427