As reported in the referenced telegram, Brazil has turned to bilateral diplomacy in furthering her international objectives. In emphasizing bilateralism, Brazilian diplomacy is relying heavily on the professional adroitness and personal charm of Minister for Foreign Relations Mario Gibson BARBOSA in dealing personally with his counterparts. Thus, a series of foreign ministers from both Latin America and Western Europe have been invited to visit Brazil. Minister Gibson Barbosa, for his part, is also travelling and plans an intensive tour through Central America enroute to the UN General Assembly in September.

Attached is a listing of tentative visits to Brazil scheduled to date, as well as the trips planned by the Brazilian Foreign Minister.
