

COMITE EL SALVADOR

New York, NY $6,982.50

For community organizing among the Salvadorean refugee community in the United States and for educational activities concerning the present situation in El Salvador.

COMMITTEE FOR INTERNATIONAL NONVIOLENCE

Philadelphia, PA $4,465.00

For educational work on nonviolence including literature distribution, travel subsidies for activists, and maintenance of a training and study center.

CONFERENCE ON SOCIALISM AND ACTIVISM

New York, NY $800.00

For rental of a space at its 1986 conference for a memorial service for Sidney Lens.

CONTRA/DICTION PROJECT

New York, NY $1,025.00

For publicity and outreach for the "War on Children" exhibit in the Washington, DC, metro system; the exhibit featured crayon drawings by Nicaraguan children detailing contra attacks they had witnessed (sponsored through the Alternative Media Information Center).

DAVID DELLINGER AUTOBIOGRAPHY PROJECT

Peacham, VT $44,222.50

For general support while David Dellinger completes work on an account of his life as a nonviolent activist and of many major protest movements of the last four decades.

EDUCATORS FOR SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Philadelphia, PA $1,500.00

For producing the film "National Service: A Choice of Heroes" to be used in public education on militarism in schools.

EDUCATORS FOR SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Syracuse, NY $500.00

For developing a curriculum writing project and producing a Teacher Resource Guide to help train teachers on ways to introduce current social issues into classrooms.

FRIENDS FOR A NONVIOLENT WORLD

Minneapolis, MN $825.00

For printing a brochure describing its Youth and Militarism Project, and for exhibit space fees at two state teachers' conferences.

GREENHAM WOMEN AGAINST CRUISE MISSILES

New York, NY $1,789.80

For educational projects, public information events and resources on issues relating to the placement of American medium-range nuclear missiles in England and Europe.

"HANDS THAT FEED US"FILM PROJECT

New York, NY $1,000.00

For this film examining the plight of migrant farm workers, focusing on Jamaican "guestworkers," in the U.S. today (sponsored through Valley Filmworks).

IDANHA FILMS

Dallas, TX $2,500.00

For producing the film "The Healing of Brian Willson," concerning the effects of U.S. contra support on the Nicaraguan people.