

Order Blank

United States Committee for the United Nations
816 21ST STREET, N.W. • WASHINGTON 6, D. C.

For the enclosed amount of $..... please send me:

- ☐ $15.00 Bookshelf for Libraries and High Schools
- ☐ $10.00 Bookshelf for Children

In addition or separately I wish to order the following items from the supplemental list of books, pamphlets, and aids: (Please circle the numbers which correspond to numbers on the supplemental list)

1. $4.50	7. $.15
2. 2.50	8. .15
3. 2.50	9. 1.25
4. 2.00	10. 1.00
5. 1.95	11. 2.00
6. 4.00	12. 1.50

Name.....

Organization.....

Street.....

City.....State.....

SUPPLEMENTAL BOOKS AND AIDS

You will want to supplement your bookshelf collection with the following items which may be ordered separately. Be sure to consult with libraries as to their needs.

- 1. UNITED NATIONS REVIEW — The official UN monthly magazine; includes news notes, full-length articles and illustrated features on current activities and problems. Annual subscription. $4.50
- 2. UNESCO COURIER — An international monthly magazine. Illustrated features of art, culture, science and ways of life of the world's people. Annual subscription. 2.50
- 3. THE POOL OF KNOWLEDGE — Katherine Shippen, Harper and Bros., 1954. Excellent and engrossing material on technical assistance of particular interest to young people. 148 pp. 2.50
- 4. AGRICULTURE IN THE WORLD ECONOMY AND THE WORK OF FAO — Food and Agriculture Organization Publications. 1955. The first title deals with importance of agriculture in the world economy. The second is a report of the Director General on the work of FAO from 1945-55. 76 pp. and 124 pp. 2.00
- 5. YOU AND THE ATOM — Gerald Wendt, Whiteside, Inc. Wm. Morrow Co., 1956. Explanation in layman's language of atomic energy and peaceful uses. 1956. 96 pp. 1.95
- 6. TEACHING WORLD AFFAIRS IN AMERICAN SCHOOLS — Everett and Arndt, Harper and Bros., N.Y. 1956. Actual examples of teaching children international affairs. 296 pp. 4.00
- 7. A STUDENT MAP OF THE UNITED NATIONS — A world map (28" x 22") in three colors showing the members of the UN, trust territories, and date of admission to the UN of member countries. .15
- 8. UN FLAG CHART — An 18" x 14" chart with full color reproductions of the flags of the 81 member nations. .15
- 9. POSTER SET — CITIZENS OF THE WORLD — 1957. A set of 15 photographs, 14" x 20", showing how individuals and groups throughout the world work and study together, with explanatory text. 1.25
- 10. UNICEF PICTURE POSTER SET — 1956. A picture and text presentation of the work of the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF). Eight 14" x 20" sheets. 1.00
- 11. MODEL OF THE UN BUILDING — Model Kit containing 58 plastic parts with instructions for assembling. Scaled to size with flags. (Complete model stands 8½" high on 15" x 10½" base.) Ideal for displays. 2.00

12. FAVORITE RECIPES FROM THE UNITED NATIONS

U. S. Committee for the UN. 1956. Edited by American Home Economics Association. Attractively illustrated in 2 colors throughout. Spiral bound 6" x 9". More than 170 kitchen-tested recipes from all UN member countries and full color reproductions of UN flags. 96 pp. $1.50