

OTHER TITLES IN PRINT

The Autobiography of Mother Jones

One of America's great labor classics, the heroic saga of the "miners' angel" with the original foreword by Clarence Darrow and a new introduction by IWW historian Fred Thompson. 242 pp. Illus. $5.95

Eugene V. Debs: Spokesman for Labor and Socialism

by Bernard J. Brommel

A new biographical study that draws on an abundance of material heretofore inaccessible to researchers. "For the serious scholar of labor history, or anyone seeking a real psychological profile of the man, this book is essential" (Elizabeth Balanoff). 265 pp. Illus. $5.95

Crime & Criminals

by Clarence Darrow

A merciless critique of our penal system; the true criminals, says Darrow, are seldom found behind bars. Introduction by Irving Abrams. 32 pp. $1.75

Lucy Parsons: American Revolutionary

by Carolyn Ashbaugh

The first full-length biography of an outstanding figure in U.S. radical history. The police regarded this black workingclass woman as "more dangerous than a thousand rioters." 288 pp. Illus. $5.95

The Head-Fixing Industry

by John Keracher

A radical and humorous critique of capitalist mass media manipulation by one of American Marxism's most popular pamphleteers. 52 pp. $1.50

Frederick Engels

by John Keracher

A short biographical study. 48 pp. $1.25

Wages & the Working Day

by John Keracher

Introduction to Marx's theory of capitalist exploitation and the struggle for shorter hours. 32 pp. $1.25

Communism and Christianity

by William Montgomery Brown

Excommunicated for supporting Darwin, Marx and the revolutionary workers' movement, the "Bad Bishop" ("Episcopus in partibus Bolsheviki et infidelium") here tells the curious story of his efforts to "Banish Gods from Skies and Capitalists from Earth." 251 pp. Illus. $4

The Roads They Made:

Women in Illinois History

by Adade M. Wheeler & Marlene S. Wortman

Profusely illustrated history of women's struggle for equality in the "Land of Lincoln." Jane Addams, Dorothy Day, Loie Fuller, Alice Hamilton, Mother Jones, Florence Kelley, Mary Kenney, Agnes Nestor, Lucy Parsons, Alzina P. Stevens and Frances Willard are only a few of the women discussed. Also includes a sketch of the Women's Trade Union League and an interview with Barbara Merrill of the Coalition of Labor Union Women. 213 pp. $3.95

Money and Money Reforms

by Chris Jelset

A critical introduction to the problems of money, banking and credit by a popular Marxist economist. 64 pp. $1.50

Rise & Repression of Radical Labor in the U.S.A.

by Daniel R. Fusfeld

A short history of class struggle in "the land of the free and the home of the brave," from the great strikes of 1877 through the First World War. 46 pp. $2.50

The following are available in cloth editions only.

The Pullman Strike

by Rev. William H. Carwardine

Eye-witness account of a pivotal episode in American labor history. First published by Kerr in 1894, this new edition includes an introduction and bibliography by Virgil J. Vogel. 174 pp. $17.95

The Amazons: A Marxian Study

by Emanuel Kanter

An anthropological survey of classical mythology in search of the ancient Matriarchy. 121 pp. $17.95

Germes of Mind in Plants

by R.H. Francé

A highly imaginative yet rigorously scientific inquiry into the world of plants, by a distinguished Austrian botanist. Translated by A.M. Simons; illustrated by Ralph Chaplin. 151 pp. $9.95

Life & Death: A Study in Biology

by Dr. E. Teichmann

"Science is practice! Where it loses its relation to the weal and woe of mankind it lacks its best element. For it is its last and deepest significance to serve the human race." Translated by A.M. Simons. 158 pp., illus. $5.95

Evolution: Social & Organic

by Arthur Morrow Lewis

A history of evolutionary theory by a popular Debsian Socialist Party lecturer, with chapters on the ancient Greeks, Linnaeus, Darwin, Kropotkin, Spencer, Ward, and Dietzgen. 186 pp. $7.95

Vital Problems in Social Evolution

by Arthur Morrow Lewis

An introduction to the "materialist conception of history," with chapters on the socialist theory of panics, Thomas Paine, the Paris Commune, surplus value, Marxian dialectics, etc. 192 pp. $7.95

The Evolution of Man

by Wilhelm Bölsche

A popular introduction to Darwin's theory, translated by Marxist paleontologist Ernest Untermann (translator of Marx's Capital). 160 pp. $7.95

The Triumph of Life

by Wilhelm Bölsche

Lectures on biology for a turn-of-the-century workingclass audience, translated by May Wood Simons and illustrated by Ralph Chaplin. 157 pp. $7.95

SOCIALIST CLASSICS

The Communist Manifesto

by Karl Marx and Frederick Engels

The standard U.S. edition of international socialism's most popular pamphlet, in print from Charles H. Kerr since the turn of the century. 64 pp. $1.50

Socialism: Utopian & Scientific

by Frederick Engels

An indispensable book for anyone desiring to understand the modern socialist movement. 139 pp. $2.25

Value, Price & Profit

by Karl Marx

An introduction to the fundamentals of Marxist economics. 144 pp. $2.50

The Right to be Lazy

by Paul Lafargue

Karl Marx's son-in-law refutes the so-called "right to work" in this delightful classic translated by Charles H. Kerr. Biographical introduction by Fred Thompson. 82 pp. $2.25

Walls and Bars

by Eugene V. Debs

America's best known socialist, Convict No. 9653, recounts his own experiences behind bars in this profound indictment of capitalism's prison system. With an introduction by Patrick E. Gorman and a 27-page Debs bibliography by Bernard J. Brommel. 286 pp. cloth only $19.95

Civil War in France

by Karl Marx

A study of the Paris Commune, with an introduction by Engels, excerpts from the Marx/Engels correspondence and related documents. 144 pp. cloth only $9.95

Anti-Dühring

by Frederick Engels

The most comprehensive summary of the Marxist view of philosophy, political economy, science, dialectics, socialism and the future society. 390 pp. cloth only $29.95

ORDERING INFORMATION

Individuals add $1 postage for the first book, and 35 cents for each additional book.

Bookstores please write for our discount schedule.

Libraries and scholars please inquire about our Rare & Out-of-Print Department.