

him. Would Satan offer a preacher a kingdom of his own if he would bring more "lightness" or worldliness into his ministry and teach "lies" which would advance the purpose of Satan throughout the earth? These are questions that should be considered before we stand at the judgment seat of Christ.

Was David inspired by a carnal spirit or by the Holy Spirit when he wrote in Psalm 139:21 and 22: "Do not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee? I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies." Again, I ask, what spirit is it that causes Christian ministers and Christian churches to love those who hate the Christ and rise up against the Christ more than other people including other Christians?

Perhaps some thought and study should be given to what Christ said in Matthew 7:21 through 23: "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them,

I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

"Iniquity" means out of line. Here it means out of line with the Word of God. The only Word of God in existence at that time was the Old Scripture. Christians would be shocked if they knew how much Christian preaching there was and is which is out of line with the word of God in the Old Scripture, and especially the gospel of the kingdom. That shock is coming!

Because a television ministry is large does not mean that that ministry is soulish and worldly. There are several very large television ministries I listen to every opportunity I have, and I receive both edification and instruction. We are now on the verge of the greatest kingdom revival in all history, and Lucifer and the antichrists are doing everything imaginable to take over this awakening and this turning and using it to their advantage and for their purpose. But they will fail. We are moving into the time when as Christ said: "The righteous shall shine forth in the kingdom of the father." Or as Malachi prophesied, the righteous would tread the wicked under foot. For my responsibility see Ezekiel, verse 20.
