

PERIODICALS

- Anarchy: A Journal of Desire Armed* (newspaper) $1.50
Best-selling American anarchist publication; combines news features, theoretical articles, and a lively letters section.
- Black Eye* (digest-sized) $1.00
Illustrated anti-authoritarian journal out of New York City. Articles range from general theory and history to NYC happenings revolving around the squatting and direct action movements.
- Fifth Estate* (newspaper) $1.50
Radical, articulate critique of modern technological society, along with current news. Now in its 21st year! Current and back issues available in bulk.
- Here and Now* (oversize glossy magazine) $2.95
Scottish magazine that collects original and reprint essays critiquing the modern social order and the relationship of the left to society. Anti-capitalist orientation.
- Insurrection* (oversize glossy magazine) $2.50
British journal attempting to bridge the gap between political theory and practice.
- Processed World*
#’s 12, 13 $1.50
#’s 14–20 $2.50
#’s 21– $3.50
Subversive fun for office workers on the VDT assembly line. Last chance to get back issues.
- The Raven* (digest-sized) $6.00
A quarterly British journal with articles on anarchist history, theory, education, and some topical issues. Successor to Anarchy (U.K.) magazine from the 1960’s and 70’s.
- Semiotext(e)* (see book section)
- Smile: International Magazine of Multiple Origins* (glossy magazine) $2.00
This irregularly published British journal is an angry child of the situationist movement: anti-spectacle, anti-commodity, and anti-authoritarian.
- Vague* (see book section)

The following titles are no longer available:

- Without a Trace*, by Background GMBH
The Paris Commune . . ., by Bakunin
Social Anarchism, by Baldelli
What is Situationism?, by Barrot
Peter Kropotkin, His Federalist Ideas, by Berneri
Rebel Violence vs. Heirarchical Violence, by B. M. Combustion
Anarchy in Action: The Spanish Revolution, by D. A. M.
The Free, by Gilliland
Worker-Student Action Committees, by Gregoire and Perlman
The German Guerilla: Terror, Reaction, and Resistance, by Klein (ed.)
The Conquest of Bread, by Kropotkin
The Bad Days Will End, by Larry Law (Spectacular Times)
Bigger Cages, Longer Chains, by Larry Law (Spectacular Times)
Revolutionary Self-Theory, by Larry Law (Spectacular Times)
Wildcat Spain Encounters Democracy, by Los Incontrolados
The Miners and Other Stories, by Morgan
Workers’ Councils, by Pannekoek
Anti-Semitism and the Beirut Pogrom, by Perlman bolo’bolo, by P. M.
The Impossibilities of Social Democracy, by Richards
Why Work, by Richards
We Want to Riot, Not to Work, by Riot Not to Work Collective
The Struggle Against Fascism . . ., by Ruhle
The Ego and Its Own, by Stirner
Women in the Spanish Revolution, by Willis
Freedom: A Hundred Years, by Various Authors
Radio Is My Bomb, by Various Authors
Housing: An Anarchist Approach, by Ward

NEW TITLES

- BAUER, Augustin Souchy
With the Peasants of Aragon (Cienfuegos Press; pb., 146 pp.) $8.95
Personal memoir of Bauer’s visit through the liberated area of Aragon studying the anarchist collective movement during the Spanish Civil War.
ISBN 0-904564-51-1