GARRICK PLAYERS colorful version of "The Taming of the Shrew" was richly costumed, with an elaborate set constructed by Rexford E. Wright '66 (Holland Patent, N.Y.)

The comedy was highlighted by the top-flight acting of (left) Ronie Riesler '67 (Highland Park, Ill.) as "Bianca," and Norman Johnson '67 (Mulino, Ore.), (L); Norman J. Champton '54 (Lake Forest) as "Petruchio", and Liliana Groag '67 (Montevideo, Uruguay) as "Kate" (R).

The intense gazes of teammates Rick Kellogg (Libertyville, '66), Doug Dunbar (No. 54, Chicago, '67), and Kalamazoo opponents, follow LFC freshman Fred Broda (Chicago) as he flips in one of the well-aimed shots which helped to win him Most Valuable Player honors this season. He averaged 17.2 points per game as the Foresters eked out a meager 6-17 record.
