

The Amazing Green Leaf Brand Dieters' Special Tea

From the Wah Yet Group, Inc.

What Our Customers Are Saying About Dieters' Special Tea:

"Your tea is absolutely incredible. I take one cup of tea at bedtime. The results have been amazing. I eat what I want without gaining weight, have achieved sustained, 100% regularity, eliminated chronic bloating and gas, and my hemorrhoids have subsided.... Amazing!" —PM

"Though I have achieved regularity for the first time in my life, I hesitate to call your Dieters' tea a laxative. After over six months of use, I have had no 'tolerance' increase. One tea bag at bedtime continues to have the same results!" —KP

"Why do you call your tea a dieters' tea? The big change I see in myself is a tremendous increase in energy due to perfect bowel regularity. No more 'loggy' or 'can't get going' feeling. Using this tea has convinced me of the 'toxemia' theory of natural health. I really feel your tea has cleansed my body of toxins and enabled it to function at a near optimum level! Weight loss is a minor benefit in my case!" —JD

"What a mental relief! No more anxiety about my bowels! I can eat what I want with no concern about how it is going to affect my regularity. My bloating and gas is a thing of the past. When will this tea hit the national news?" —BT

"A whole raft of annoyances disappeared since I starting taking your tea once a day. And best of all, unlike laxatives, including natural ones like bulk and senna, there has been no diminution of effect with prolonged use!" —ST

What The Wah Yet Group Says About Their 100% Natural Herb Tea:

Ingredients: Malva Verticellata, a natural herb, contains no caffeine.

It is soothing and relaxing. Due to unique cleansing effect the tea has on the body, you may experience extra bowel movement and, occasionally a small cramp when first start using the tea. This is a natural reaction of the body to the cleansing effect of the tea and will stop once your system is cleaned.
