
FEE Video Series

The best of FEE—past and present—on videotape. If you can't attend a FEE seminar yourself—or if you want to acquaint others with the freedom philosophy—a FEE Video Seminar will bring these timeless ideas to you.

Each videotape is approximately 60 minutes long and is in VHS format, professionally edited. A short introduction to FEE at the end of each message makes these videotapes well suited for use in classes or meetings.

Howard Baetjer Jr.

THE CASE FOR FREE MARKET EDUCATION

Revealing the limitations and political nature of public schooling, Mr. Baetjer, formerly of FEE and now a doctoral student at George Mason University, examines the fundamentals of private schooling and the contemporary movement away from government-controlled education. (Color) 0910VF

Richard Ebeling

FREE MARKET VS. PROTECTIONISM

According to Professor Ebeling, the evils of 18th-century mercantilist ideas are being revisited upon the world in the 20th century. Unless the intellectual course is changed toward freedom, dire consequences await in the 21st. (Color) 0920VF

Israel M. Kirzner

COMPETITION AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP

A look at the role of the entrepreneur in society and his effect on competition. Dr. Kirzner, a FEE trustee and professor of economics at New York University, improves our understanding of the market process. (Color) 0930VF

William L. Law

THE MYTH OF THE CLASS STRUGGLE

There are no "classes" in a free society, and therefore no "class struggle." Those who earn wages and those who earn profits are partners who share the benefits of a market economy.

Mr. Law, is a businessman and trustee of FEE. (Color) 0940VF

Leonard E. Read

THE ESSENCE OF AMERICANISM

The ideas that sparked the spiritual, political, and economic antecedents of the "American" miracle. The twentieth century departed from those concepts—with grave consequences. (Black and white) 0950VF

HOW TO ADVANCE LIBERTY

Drawing on many years of experience, Read offers his wisdom on the effective methods for advancing the principles of limited government and the free market. (Black and white) 0960VF

Benjamin A. Rogge

COMPETITION AND MONOPOLY

The late Dr. Rogge was well known for his captivating wit and wisdom. Here he challenges the "fashionable" notions of monopoly which focus on the economy only at a moment in time. Open competition is an endless "leapfrogging" process. (Black and white) 0970VF

Hans F. Sennholz

THE GREAT DEPRESSION

Dr. Sennholz explodes the myth that the Great Depression was caused by unhampered markets and shows that the disaster was the result of government intervention. (Color) 0995VF

MONEY AND UNEMPLOYMENT

The story of the age of inflation, of fiat money given "legal tender" status, of runaway inflation and the disruption of the economy, including the massive unemployment that accompanies the growth of the welfare state—all related in Professor Sennholz's engaging style. (Color) 0990VF

John K. Williams

ASKING THE RIGHT QUESTIONS

Understanding the freedom philosophy requires a unique perspective. In his popular style, Dr. Williams reveals the correct approach to classical liberalism's fundamental ideas. (Color) 0997VF
