

available to her. Hearing Dana's testimony gives her hope and the realization that, 'if a 13-year-old can do it, I guess I can make it too!'

This young girl's near brush with abortion and the resulting birth continue to speak to us all. Dana has peace with her decision to place Michael with adoptive parents. Even though it was hard and much to bear, it was the most loving thing she has ever done.

For more information or to order more brochures:

Abortion Aftermath Center
for women

1163 Payne Ave. St. Paul, MN 55101
(612) 771-1700

If you see yourself in this article or if you are hurting from an abortion related experience you need to know there's hope and healing for you.