

have done, but according to his mercy he saved us. — Titus 3:5.

The preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God. — 1 Corinthians 1:18.

There is a difference between being saved and being lost, and, when this difference is recognized and seen to be one which is real and even eternal, the greatest single decision which can be made by any human being is that of accepting Jesus Christ and becoming saved.

“Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved” is an invitation which is real and genuine, offered by God to you. The decision to acknowledge this difference and to pass from death into life is one which may be made at this very instant, for the Bible says:

“The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; that if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved” (Rom. 10:8, 9).

Distributed by 20th Century Reformation Hour
Dr. Carl McIntire, Director. Sponsored by Christian Beacon, Collingswood, N. J. 08108