

Dear Mr. DeCrane,

I understand that over the past few months Texaco has pulled all pornography from approximately 1000 Company owned stores. I want to say thank you for making this morally correct decision and let you know that, when possible, I will try to repay you by using Texaco. I hope you will continue to persuade your independent jobbers to also pull all pornography.

No doubt many innocent women and children will not have to suffer rape and sexual abuse because of your decision.

Sincerely, _____
