

each month. The interest you save can add up to more than you borrowed. Page 171.

- How long it's safe to postpone paying bills. Secret grace periods at telephone companies. Gas and electric companies. Finance companies. Banks. Page 204.
- Bills you should pay first because your whole credit rating depends on them. Page 193.

THE COMPLETE BOOK OF PERSONAL FINANCE comes to you with a one year money-back guarantee.

I'm betting you never ask for a refund.

- Adjustable mortgage confidential. When interest rates fall you pay less, right? Don't bet on it. Page 466.
- Best color to paint house if you want to sell it fast. Page 478.
- Home improvements confidential. Pay the contractor 10% in advance, right? Wrong. Page 475.
- Cars confidential. Quick look at sticker price plus simple arithmetic reveals minimum figure car dealer will accept. Page 23.
- What car dealers charge you for twice. You could read your bill over and never spot the scam. Page 21.
- Life insurance confidential. Policy riders that are not worth paying extra for. Page 285.
- Universal life is a great buy -- but for some people it's a trap. Page 288.
- What "all risk" policies don't cover. Are you missing the protection you need most? Page 310.
- Collect 100% from major medical policy that pays only 80%. Lots of people could be doing this but nobody shows them how. Page 299.
- Disability insurance confidential. Fine print that can cheat you when it's time to collect. Companies to avoid. When payout is taxable and when it's tax-free. Page 305.

The 2,142 best-kept money secrets in America. Tax deductions that sound almost too good to be legal. And the court rulings that say they're OK.

Questions to ask before you open a bank account, a brokerage account, a credit card account. And what the answers should be.

- How to pick a mutual fund. (Page 414.) A deferred annuity. (Page 292.) Tax-free municipal bonds. (Page 405.) Zero-coupon bonds. (Page 401.) Real estate investment trusts. (Page 435.) Mortgage loan partner-