

Teaching and Rebellion at Union Springs, by Patricia Michaels, saddle-stitched, 24 pages, illus., pg. size 5½x8½. $.50.

A young teacher, tired of political hassles at her ghetto school, takes a job in a small industrial town to "get away from it all." She soon discovers that even Wonder Bread Children don't like school or their prospects after graduation. Though trying to be non-political, she soon discovers that playing rock music in class and listening to students' concerns are political enough to get her fired. Her account is valuable for both students and teachers.

Schoolstopper's Textbook, $.35 or 5 for $1.00.

Eighty-seven ways to send your principal to the funny-farm. Some of the most imaginative tactics ever discovered by day-dreaming students are collected in this volume. Hundreds of testimonials have been received from satisfied organizers.

How to Research the Power Structure of Your Secondary School, by Bert Marian, David Rosen, and David Osborne, paperback, 114 pages, illus., pg. size 8½x11. $1.00.

A step-by-step approach to determining how decisions are made in public schools. Written in textbook form, with worksheets and questions, the book can help students trace lines of authority so they can quickly determine who is responsible for decisions that affect them.

Other Materials

Sample Packet of High School Underground newspapers, 12 different papers from around the U.S. $2.00 for young people. $5.00 for adults and libraries.

A variety of styles, political views, and geographical areas are represented. The packet includes everything from fancy mass-circulation tabloids to innocuous-looking dittoed sheets that had whole towns up in arms.

Button, three color, safety pin backing, 1" diameter. $.50.

Says "Power to Young People."

T-Shirts, high quality shirts, sizes small, medium, large, or extra large. $3.00 (While they last.)

Silk-screened to resemble the "School Zone — Watch Out for Children" road signs. But instead of two little darlings looking both ways, there's a silhouette of a young person aiming a rifle.

Organizing Kit

To help young people who are involved in organizing, we've put some of our materials together in a Youth Liberation Organizing Kit. It contains four of our pamphlets, five sample underground student papers, two sample copies of FPS: a magazine of young people's liberation. It's available from us for $4.00.

Note: If you are young or on a limited income, send what you can; if you are employed, we hope you can send extra.

"FPS is certainly a mature and quite professional magazine.... Regardless of how the adult reader may feel about the specifics, the magazine is invaluable as a source of student opinion.... Should be required for all teachers and librarians, and it certainly will be welcomed by most junior high and high school students."

• Bill Katz, Library Journal, 11/15/75

"Youth Liberation does much work that is laudable — its encouragement of students to get involved in the structure of public education and to understand their individual rights may help develop students who will become knowledgeable and involved in the process of government and the protection of civil rights."

• American School Board Journal, 2/76

"The young people who have contributed essays, poems, and cartoons [to Youth Liberation: News, Politics and Survival Information] are unusually articulate. They certainly do have a case [against the established society] and they state it clearly and dramatically."

• Publishers Weekly, 11/18/72

"First-rate, up-to-date educational materials. [Youth Liberation] can fill important curriculum needs in a healthy and completely honest way."

• The Workbook, 11/76

"[Growing Up Gay] is an eloquent account of the kind of pain and beauty that every young homosexual lives with from day to day."

• People Soup

[High School Women's Liberation] is a clear and balanced introduction to the problems of women... practical and comprehensive...."

• The Workbook, 11/76

"Avoiding legal jargon, this easy-to-read pamphlet [Young People and the Law] cites court cases that have affected such rights as due process and freedom of expression.... Youth Liberation has a number of other valuable pamphlets, as well as a magazine. One of the most useful items is a sample packet of 12 high school underground papers from around the country... These papers are a constructive combination of political awareness, creativity, and frank disenchantment with the powers that be."
