

AOB News is undergoing a major reorganization. We will be notifying all subscribers, contributors and advertisers with details about the reorganization as soon as it is finalized. AOB will be utilizing an editorial review board for all articles, etc., as was the intent and practice of the original founder(s). An editor is now being selected, as is the review board. If you are an advertiser and have paid AOB for advertising you have not yet received or if you are a current subscriber and have outstanding issues please contact us with specifics at 360-479-4765 or lyceum@ix.netcom.com.
