Dutton

Ball

4 :35 P.M.

Ball informed Dutton of the above and the names suggested to arrange an appointment with were: Fulbright, Hickenlooper, Mansfield, and Selden or ~~Mann~~. It was thought that it could be a joint meeting. Ball said that the Secretary had tried to reach Fulbright and Hickenlooper for lunch today but was not able to find them.

Mann

Ball

4:37 P.M.

Ball asked Mann if he could do the briefing on the Hill tonight. Ball did not think that we should let it go to long. Ball said the President would be back tonight about 8:30. Ball told Mann that he had already spoken to Dutton about setting up the appointments. Mann said he would call Dutton and he would be happy. Mann also suggested Morgan for the meeting.
