Dear Linc:

The group of Brazilian university student leaders about which you wrote me were in town this week. I understand from Jack Kubish that their program was very full and they seemed to be pleased with it.

I am sorry that it was not possible for the President to receive them. They happened to be here during the days of intensive deliberations on the Vietnam problem preliminary to the President's press conference of last Wednesday.

I gather that the visit is an annual affair. I hope that next year the President will be able to meet with the group.

In your letter you indicate that you expect to be back in Washington before long. I look forward to seeing you again.

Best regards,

McGeorge Bundy
