

BIOGRAPHIC DATA

BRAZIL

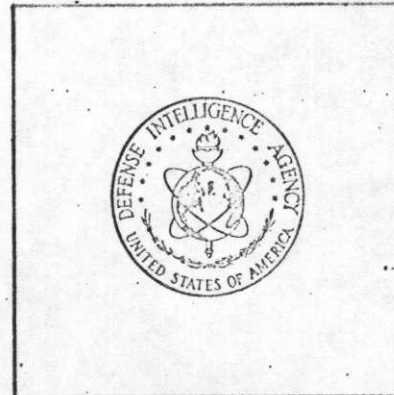

Capt Fernando de Carvalho CHAGAS

March 1968

(U) NAME: Capt Fernando de Carvalho Chagas
(CHAH-gass), Navy.

(U) POSITION: Armed Forces Attaché, Tokyo, Japan;
Seoul, Korea; and Taipeh, Taiwan, since Feb 1967.

(C) SIGNIFICANCE: He is an intelligent and competent line officer and a submarine specialist. He attended several U. S. Navy courses in the United States, including the Prospective Commanding Officer Course at the U. S. Navy Submarine School, New London, Conn. (1964), in which he received an excellent student rating. He served as a submarine commander in Operación UNITAS VI, a combined naval exercise sponsored by the U. S. in 1965, in which Brazil, Argentina, and Uruguay participated.

(C) POLITICS:

(C) International: Friendly toward the United States.

(U) PERSONAL DATA:

(C) Description: Stocky build (5'9", 180 lbs), black hair, brown eyes, bushy eyebrows. Drinks moderately.

(U) Languages: Native Portugese; good English.

(U) Religion: Roman Catholic.

(U) CAREER:

?	- Cadet, Naval Academy
?	- Student, Course on instruction techniques.
?	- Student, Command Course, Brazilian Naval War College.
?	- Student, U. S. Navy Fleet Sonar School, Key West, Florida.
	Also attended several short naval courses at various times in the U. S.
1963	- Promoted to Cdr, 8 Feb 1963.
?	- Student, Superior Course, Naval War College.
1964	- Student, Prospective Commanding Officer Course, U. S. Navy Submarine School, New London, Conn., 13 Apr-8 May 1964.
1964	- Instructor, Naval War College.

Authority

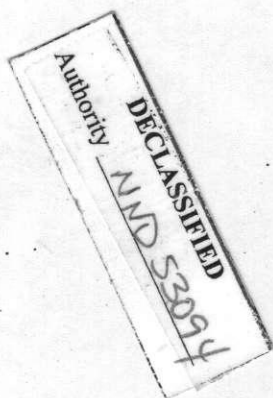

NND 53094

DECLASSIFIED

C-O-N-F-I-D-E-N-T-I-A-L

BRAZIL
Capt Fernando de Carvalho CHAGAS
March 1968

- 1965 - Commander, submarine Bahia. Participated in Operación UNITAS VI, a joint naval exercise sponsored by the U. S. 18 Oct-1 Dec 1965.
- 1966 - Promoted to Capt, 20 Dec 1966.
- 1967-present - Armed Forces Attaché, Tokyo, Japan, Seoul, Korea, and Taipei, Taiwan, from Feb 1967.

C-O-N-F-I-D-E-N-T-I-A-L