AN AMERICAN PARABLE.....

*Our little systems have their day;
They have their day and cease to be:
They are but broken lights of Thee,
And Thou, O LORD, art more than they.*

There was once a society of infants who considered themselves adults. They were almost totally illiterate. Nonetheless, they managed to babble endlessly about RUNNING. Day and night they would chatter to each other about how to run faster, what kind of conspiratorial elites were trying to keep them from running and how wonderful it was to live in a country where each person had a constitutional right to run.

No one noticed that these infants could not walk, in fact could not even crawl.
