THE GRAND Stand atop this mountain!

The Grand Teton is America's most dramatic peak, rising over a mile from the valley below. There is no better spot to learn the fundamentals of rock climbing.

We'll have three days of climbing instruction and hiking, with lots of hands-on practice, followed by a free day on which you can hike, swim in a crystal mountain lake, or visit Yellowstone. Then we begin our 2-day ascent. Get ready for the most exhilarating day of your life!

Price includes:

Deluxe condo accommodations with living room and full kitchen; Expert instruction; Guides; Most meals; Equipment use. Airfare not included. Please see our catalog for full details.

Is this the right trip for you?

No prior climbing experience is needed, but you should be in good aerobic condition. We will be led by experienced local guides; nonetheless, mountaineering of any sort involves inherent and unpredictable risks. After the training, if you or your instructor feel you should not attempt The Grand, you'll be able to substitute another climb.

July 26 to Aug. 2, 1998: $1395.

Based in Jackson Hole, Wyoming.
