

Read interviews with:

Thozamile Botha, trade union activist

Ellen Musialela, former military nurse with SWAPO freedom fighters

Michael Morgan, deserter from racist South African army

Salaelo, actor/playwright of political theater

Phumzile Zulu, teacher in school for young exiles

Mavis Nhlapo and David Ndaba, former student activists now abroad to tell Black South Africa's story

Clip and mail with payment to:

World View Publishers
46 West 21 St.
New York, N.Y. 10010

| Send me:                           | Price  | Quantity | Total |
|------------------------------------|--------|----------|-------|
| Soweto Remembered           | $3.25 |          |       |
| A Voice from Harper's Ferry | $2.00 |          |       |
| Eyewitness Ethiopia         | $1.50 |          |       |
| Add 75¢ for postage                |        | Total    |       |

Special offer: All three titles $5.75

10 copies or more 40% discount (plus shipping)

Name _____

Address _____

City/State/Zip _____

☐ Please send me a catalog

Labor donated

What readers say:

"Soweto Remembered has captured the heart and soul of the struggle of the South African freedom fighters and contributed a major insight into the struggle for liberation of the Black oppressed. . . . I strongly recommend this reading for the student and the worker who want a clear understanding of the South African struggle."

Dennis L. Serrette, co-founder, Coalition of Black Trade Unionists; co-founder, National Black Communications Coalition; worker

"A valuable book, direct and clear, in which South Africans speak vividly about their own experiences struggling against racism and oppression."

Jennifer Davis, Executive Dir., American Committee on Africa

"Especially valuable as an organizing tool, this book is an excellent, easy to understand introduction to the struggle in southern Africa that activists will find very useful."

Southern Africa magazine

.....

About the author—Paddy Colligan, a long-time political activist on southern Africa and other issues, has contributed many articles to Workers World newspaper and Southern Africa magazine. She has followed developments on the continent for two decades, earning a masters degree from Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies, and working and traveling in Africa for three years. She is currently working as a darkroom technician.

Of related interest:

Eyewitness Ethiopia: The Continuing Revolution
by Deirdre Griswold
publ. 1978
illustrated, 49 pp.
$1.50, ISBN
0-89567-028-3

Meet members of urban dwellers' and peasants' associations, refugees and military commanders. Hear Chairman Mengistu describe the achievements and tasks of the revolution. The author spent three weeks in Ethiopia in February 1978. Also contains a chronology of the Ethiopian Revolution to mid-1978.

A Voice from Harper's Ferry
by Osborne P. Anderson
reprinted, 102 pp.
$2.00, ISBN
0-89567-015-1

An account by the only Black survivor of the John Brown raid on the Harper's Ferry arsenal to get arms for a slave rebellion. Contains a contemporary introduction by Vincent Copeland.