

A. C. MILLER
13370 BELFIELD DRIVE
DALLAS, TEXAS 75234
PHONE 241-4830

March 31, 1970.

Gordon D. Hall,
222 Malborough Street,
Boston, Mass. 02116.

Dear Mr. Hall:

Has Edward Darling of BEACON PRESS gotten you to give him a book for printing as yet? I had a letter from him in February, 1966, in which he said he was trying to get a book out of you.

I need to be better informed on the extreme right, Mr. Hall. How active is the John Birch Society in Dallas? Do Baptist laymen or clergymen work with the Birchers here in Dallas and Texas in any special way? I sometimes think they do.

Are the John Birchers strong and active in Amarillo? Do they influence any of the Baptist pastors there?

I do not want to embarrass you in any way. I was formerly the Director of the Christian Life Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention, but have been retired from there for 10 years. I was succeeded in that position by Foy Valentine who now holds it.

I am now in retirement but quite active in keeping up or trying to keep up with the movements in our country and in our world.

Hope all goes well with you.

Sincerely,

A. C. Miller
A. C. Miller.