

Wild Kiwi

The bungee jump is optional.
Swim with dolphins, explore glacier caves, paddle through foaming whitewater.

Mar. 10 to 27, 2000 — $3,895.

Single Supp.: $400

Includes air from Los Angeles;
other cities available.

Price Includes

- Air from Los Angeles (other cities available for surcharge)
- All transfers within New Zealand
- All hotels and accommodations, priced per/person, double-occupancy (We'll match you with a roommate if you like.)
- Services of tour guide accompanying the group at all locations
- Full breakfast most days, four lunches, and six dinners
- Kayaking day at Abel Tasman Park
- Many part-day activities including a winery tour and tasting
- Several short (1 – 2 hour) hikes
- Sheep farm visit; Glowworm cave visit
- Snorkeling with dolphins
- Glacier hike, with mountain guide
- Bungee jump
- Overnight boat ride on Milford Sound (shared rooms this night)
- Just $50 a day (or less) for optional activities: Whitewater rafting, canyoning, riversurfing, rock climbing, and others

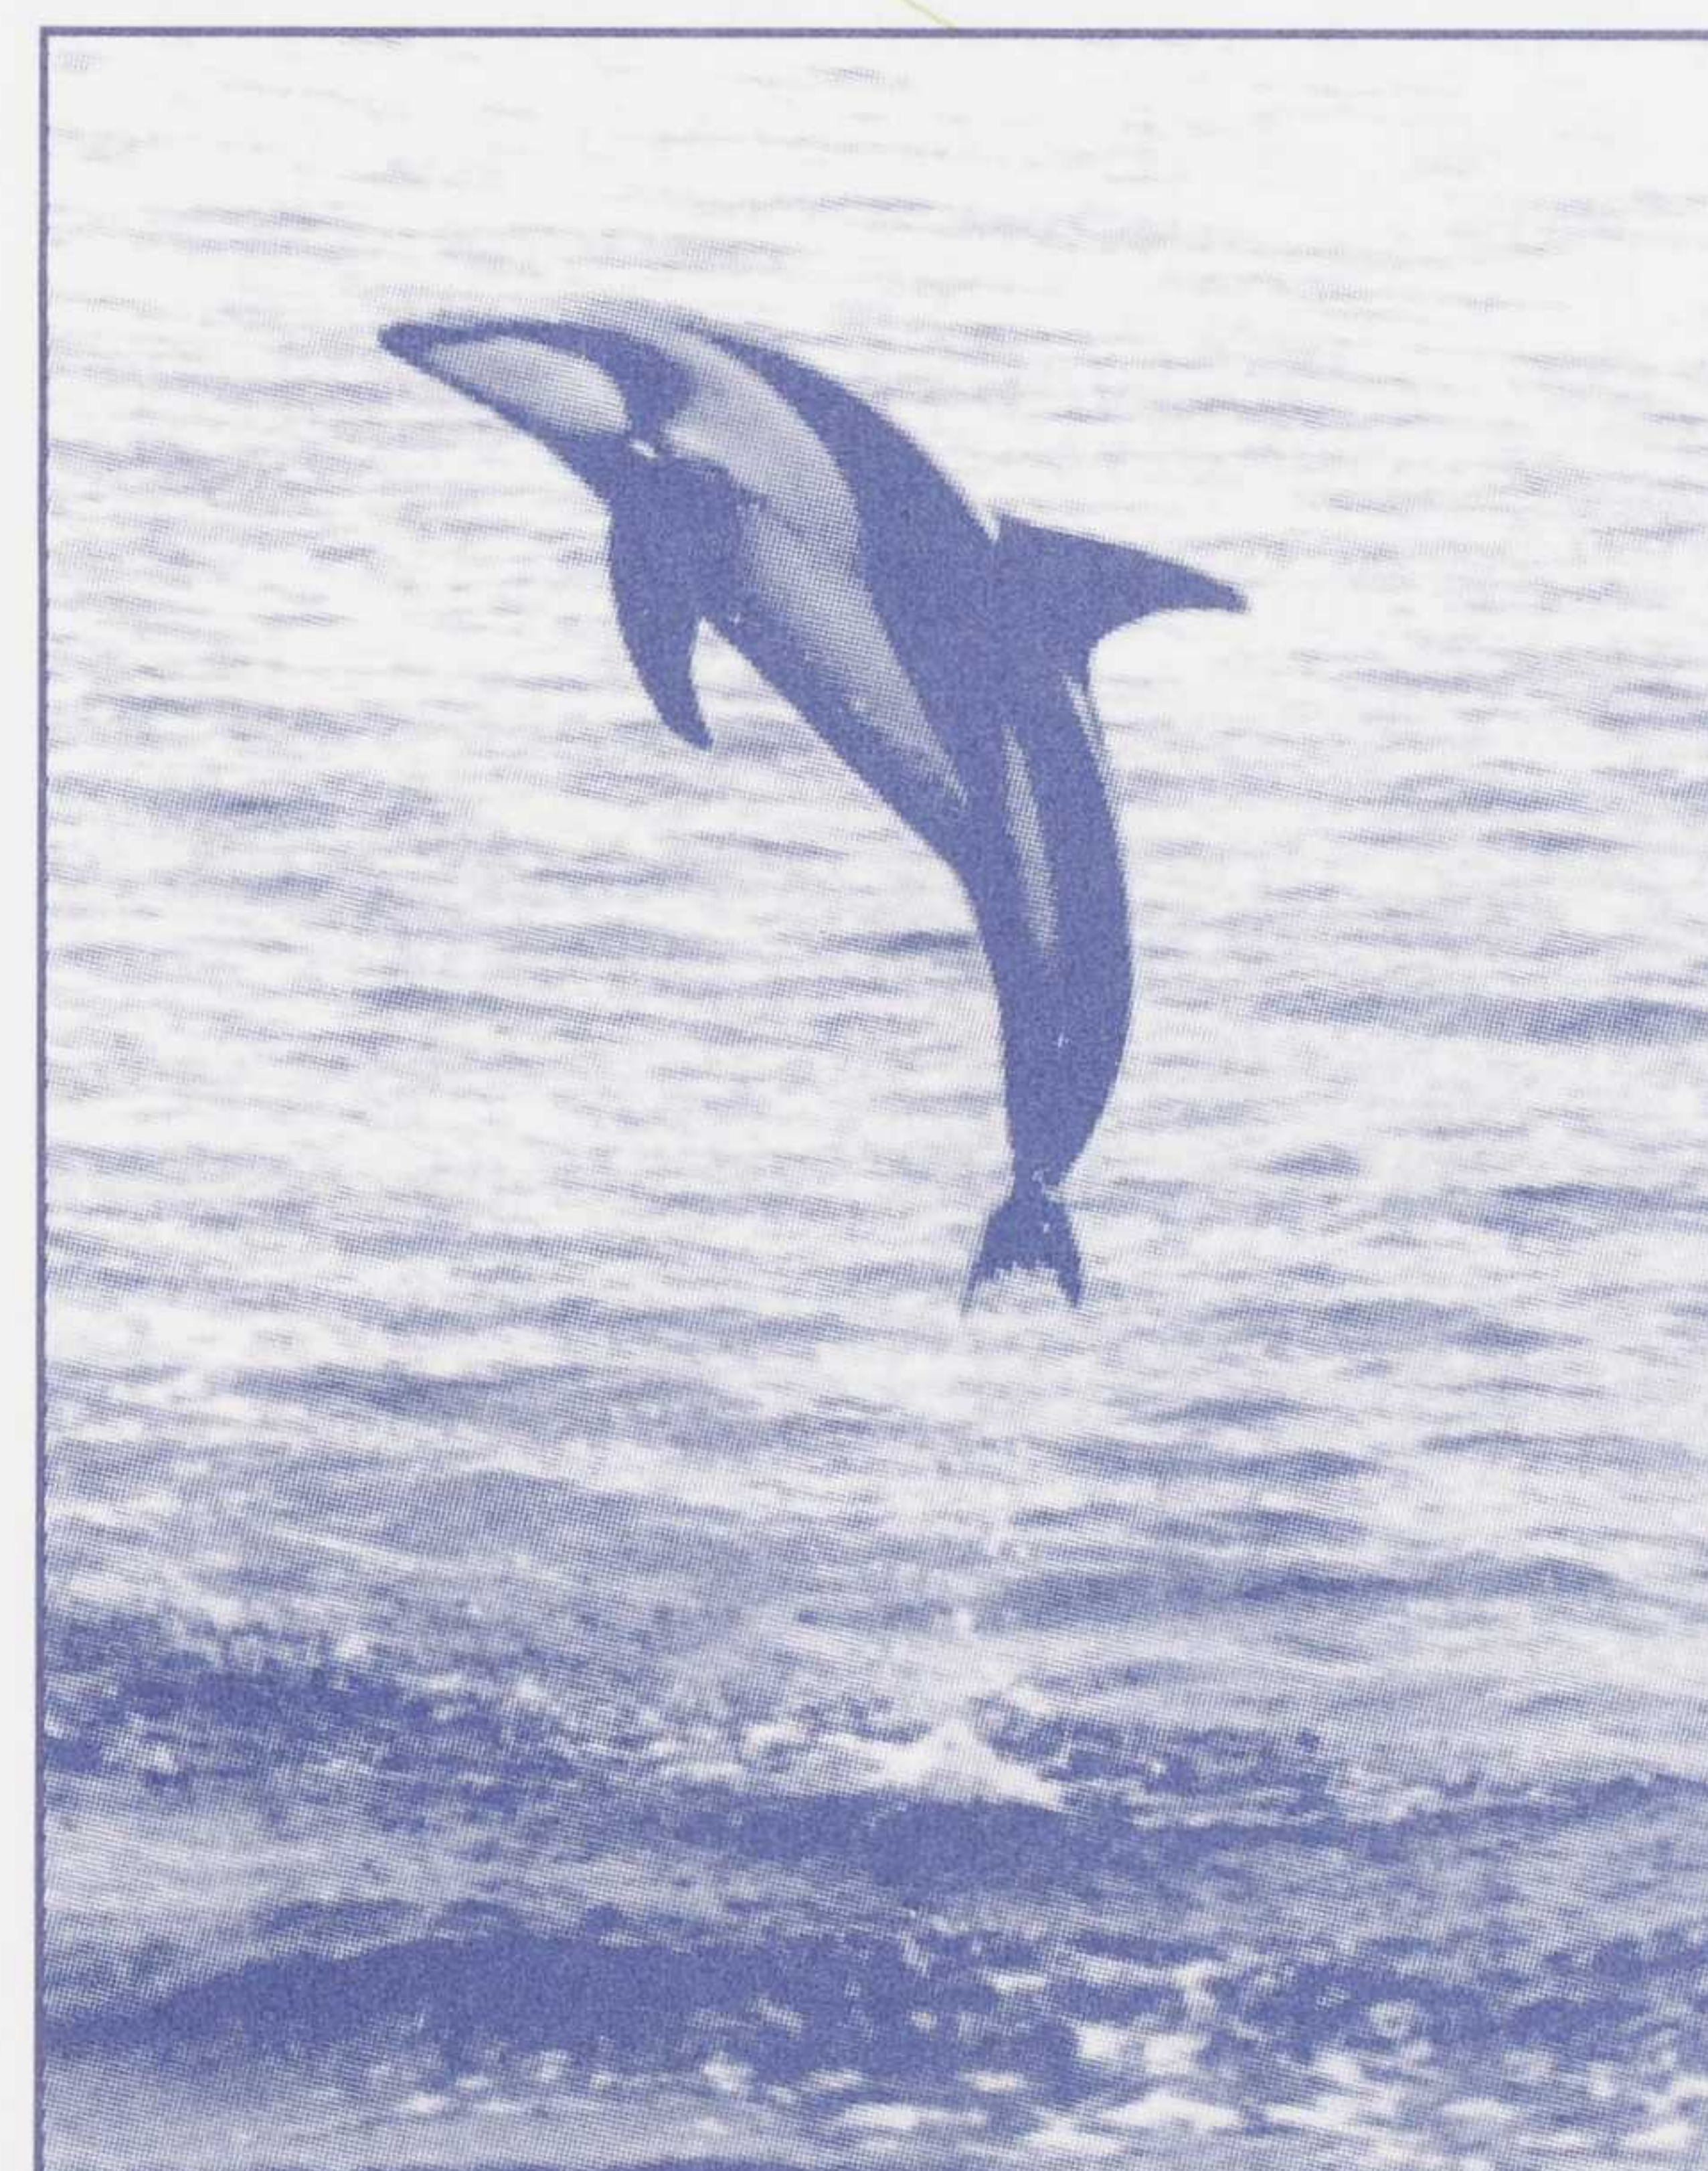

Please note: On overnight boat in Milford Sound, single rooms are not available for those taking single supplement.

Not Included:

- Souvenirs, snacks, admissions
- Meals not listed here
- Optional activities

New Zealand offers endless natural splendor, and there's no better way to experience it than with our lively gay adventure group. On this unforgettable trip, we'll become a part of New Zealand's natural wonders as we try out the myriad adventure sports that this friendly country offers.

We begin at the northern tip of New Zealand's scenic South Island, kayaking between the tiny islands and golden beaches of Abel Tasman Bay. In Kaikoura, slide into the water amid hundreds of dusky dolphins, and swim right alongside them, as they entertain you with their acrobatics.