

World Hunger Crisis Kit, mimeographed, 75 pages plus, 1975, $1.50. . This kit includes a self-survey questionnaire, basic background facts, a selection of reprinted articles and features:“World Hunger and World Order” by Tim Zimmer and . . .
“Current Approaches to World Hunger” with specific initiatives the U.S. could take by Bill Rose.

The U.S. and the Developing World, Agenda for Action, 1975, James Howe, ed. 211 pages, $4.50. Published by the Overseas Development Council, this anthology surveys the basic global economic problems we face, provides sixty pages of indispensable, factual information and asks whether the world can move toward a “global compact based on symmetrical interdependence.”

Bread for the World, Arthur Simon, 177 pages, 1975, Paulist Press, $1.50. A leader of the largest lobby for an enhanced American attack on world hunger, here states the reasons for and the strategy behind movement.

Order form:

- ☐ By Bread Alone . . . . . $3.95
- ☐ World Hunger Kit . . . . . $1.50
- ☐ Agenda for Action, 1975 . . . . . $4.50
- ☐ Bread for the World . . . . . $1.50

Send above checked items to:

_____ name

_____ address

_____ city _____ state _____ zip

Add $.35 postage and handling; Ill. residents add 5% sales tax.

Mail to: WORLD WITHOUT WAR BOOKSTORE, a project of the World Without War Council, 110 S. Dearborn, Chicago, Ill., 60603; Other Council offices at 1514 N.E. 45th Street, Seattle, Wa. 98105; 1730 Grove Street, Berkeley, Ca. 94709; 175 Fifth Ave., N.Y., N.Y. 10010; 1838 S.W. Jefferson, Portland, Or. 97201 and P.O. Box 5631, Eugene, Oregon 97405.

- ☐ Check for complete list of World Without War Publications
- ☐ Check for free World Without War Council introduction.